He was awarded membership in the prestigious Order of Canada in July 2011.

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

The third-longest tenured General Manager in National Hockey League history, Nashville Predators President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile has spent 32 consecutive years at the helm of a franchise (17 with Nashville, 15 with Washington) dating back to Aug. 30, 1982 when he was hired by the Washington Capitals. He is the only general manager in NHL history to be at the helm of two different clubs for 1,000 games and 500 victories, attaining both marks in 2011-12, and is the lone person to be a finalist for the General Manager of the Year Award for each of its first three years of existence (2010, 2011 and 2012). Poile also added the honor of a lifetime to his resume on June 28, 2013, when he was named General Manager of the United States Olympic Team for the 2014 Winter Games in Sochi.

Poile enters the 2014-15 campaign ranked second all-time in games by a general manager (2,376) – trailing only Glen Sather (2,618) – and third in wins (1,151) behind Sather (1,266) and longtime Boston Bruins executive Harry Sinden (1,170). On March 21, 2010 at St. Louis, he picked up his 1,000th win as a general manager in a 3-2 Predators victory.

While Poile continues to use effective drafting and development of home-grown players as the foundation for the Nashville Predators, his blueprint for success has necessitated the welcoming of high-octane offensive performers to the organization in recent seasons. Dating back to the 2013 Trade Deadline, Poile and his staff have been aggressive in acquiring young, talented prospects with high offensive ceilings, and proven NHL stars via trade and free agency to supplement Nashville's drafted talent.

His biggest deal came on June 27, 2014 on the floor of the 2014 Entry Draft when Poile acquired former 40-goal scorer and 2012 NHL First-Team All-Star James Neal from the Pittsburgh Penguins. Less than four months before Neal's acquisition, he snagged a highly touted prospect on Trade Deadline Day for the second consecutive season, acquiring Calle Jarnkrok and a second-round selection from Detroit. The shift began on April 3, 2013, when he traded for highly touted prospect Filip Forsberg from Washington. Forsberg, selected 11th overall in the 2012 Entry Draft, was rated the third-best player by Poile's staff.

Poile has been among the busiest GMs on the free-agent market the past two summer as well. In the first two weeks of July 2014, the focus was on proven veterans on low-risk contracts in centers Olli Jokinen, Mike Ribeiro and Derek Roy, and defenseman Anton Volchenkov. The opening day of free agency in 2013 (July 5) was the busiest day on the open market ever experienced by the team as Poile signed five players to contracts, including Stanley Cup-winners Matt Cullen and Viktor Stalberg, gritty role-playing forward Eric Nystrom, and 2013-14 20-game winner Carter Hutton in net.

Despite the recent influx of players from the outside, the Predators are built around a pair of home-grown products in Captain Shea Weber – who has been a finalist for the Norris Trophy three of the past four years – and two-time Vezina Trophy finalist Pekka Rinne, both of whom are under long-term contracts. Weber's defensive partner Roman Josi, a second-round selection in 2008, had a breakout campaign in 2013-14, and Seth Jones, the fourth overall selection in the 2013 Entry Draft, is on the verge of stardom. The blue line also includes a pair of 2009 draftees in Ryan Ellis (first round) and Mattias Ekholm (fourth round), in addition to Victor Bartley, who had never played an NHL game prior to signing with Nashville.

Helping anchor the forward corps are 2013-14 leading goal scorer and 50-point producer Craig Smith (2009), Colin Wilson (2008) and Gabriel Bourque (2009). For the second consecutive season in 2013-14, 22 of 34 players were developed by the club.

The assertive team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has helped the organization earn the reputation as one of the most stable, well-built teams in the NHL. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton, Chief Amateur Scout Jeff Kealty and a team of gifted professional and amateur scouts across North America and Europe.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop blossoming young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Finals in 2006. They made their AHL-record 12th consecutive trip to the Calder Cup Playoffs in 2014, winning four division titles in that span. The Admirals also became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points in eight consecutive seasons from 2002-03 to 2010-11, each season with a team predominately made up of Predators prospects.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world, as evidenced by his selection to the post of General Manager of the U.S. Olympic Team for the 2014 Sochi Games. He was associate general manager for the 2010 United States Olympic Team, and helped select the team that would become one of the headline stories of the 2010 Games, capturing the hearts of a nation en route to a silver medal. Poile was a member of the U.S. National Team Advisory Group for the third consecutive International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships in 2014, and also served as associate GM for the American entries into the 2009 and 2010 editions of the tournament, and as general manager at the 1998 and 1999 Worlds.

Since its establishment in 2005, Poile has helped guide the NHL Competition Committee, making him one of just two individuals to sit on the committee all 10 seasons of its existence. The steering body that formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors, the Competition Committee continues to be one of the most influential bodies in the game today having helped usher in innovations featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout, hybrid icing and the grandfathering of visors. In March 2014, Poile received yet another prestigious honor by being appointed to the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee, and helped mold the Hall of Fame's 61st group of inductees in June 2014 which included players Rob Blake, Peter Forsberg, Dominik Hasek and Mike Modano; coach Pat Burns in the Builders Category; and Bill McCreary in the Referee and Linesman Category.

Poile's third straight General Manager of the Year nomination in 2011-12 came after the team finished with a 48-26-8 record (104 points), the third-best record in the Western Conference, fifth-best in the NHL, and good for home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 2010-11, he was a finalist for the award after Nashville earned the fifth seed in the Western Conference (99 points) and gave up the third-fewest goals in the League (190) despite missing nearly 350 man-games due to injury, and in 2009-10, he constructed a team that was one of 11 to hit the 100-point mark despite having a payroll ranked 28th in the League, earning a spot as a finalist for the inaugural General Manager of the Year Award.

In 2006-07, Poile was recognized by The Sporting News as its "Executive of the Year," an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84), which is determined through a vote of his peers, after the Predators finished the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) during the campaign. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). David Poile began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982. The 2014-15 campaign will mark his 42nd in NHL.

For the 1982-83 season, Poile took the reins of a Washington team that had never made the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the postseason 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 596-454-124 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top-five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the League's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame. In June 2014, he received an honorary doctorate degree from American Sentinel University.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and in December 2007, he added President of Hockey Operations to his title. For the past four seasons, Poile has donated to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale programs to our U.S. troops), USA Hockey and Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's for every Predators victory.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian – who serves as the Predators Director of Hockey Operations – and two granddaughters – Ellie and Charlotte.

MANAGEMENT

JEFF COGEN CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Jeff Cogen brings more than 30 years of experience in the sports and entertainment industry to the Nashville Predators as the team's Chief Executive Officer, a role he was named to in August 2010. As the CEO of the Predators and Bridgestone Arena, Cogen is responsible for running the business operations of both the club and the arena.

During his tenure as CEO, Cogen has guided the organization to its most successful sales seasons to date, with the Nashville Predators increasing attendance year over year and growing the season-ticket holder base to more than 10,000 for the first time since the 1999-2000 season. Cogen has also been instrumental in the creation of the brand-new Ford Ice Center in Antioch, Tennessee, which opened in August 2014. This rink is part of an ongoing public/private partnership with Metro Nashville to promote healthy lifestyles for Middle Tennessee residents and continue increasing participation in youth, adult and amateur hockey.

Prior to joining the Predators, Cogen served as President of both the Dallas Stars (2007-10) and Texas Rangers (2004-07) after previously working under the Hicks Sports Group umbrella from 1993-2001. As President of the Rangers, and then the Stars, Cogen ran all business aspects of the franchises, and also served as Hicks Sports Group's primary representative on American Airlines Center Board that provides oversight and leadership on all arena issues including overall financial performance, capital expenditures, third-party events, and team operations.

With the Rangers, where he was also Chief Operating Officer for one year, Cogen increased revenues by 20 percent over a three-year span, and generated revenue streams through a landmark naming-rights deal (Ameriquest Field in Arlington), and through non-traditional outlets such has technological partnerships.

In his first stint with the Stars as Vice President from 1993-99, Cogen helped build the newly relocated franchise's season ticket base to more than 15,000 fans and saw a sellout streak that lasted more than 150 games over a nearly four-season span. Following his promotion to Executive V.P. of Marketing and Sales of Southwest Sports Group (entity that operated both the Stars and Rangers), Cogen created synergies between the teams that led to exponential rises in ticket and sponsorship revenue.

Cogen's two stints in Dallas were bridged by a successful two-year stretch as Chief Operating Officer of the Florida Panthers and the then-Office Depot Center. From 2001-03, he executed a naming rights agreement for the venue, and boosted income on both the team and building sides via joint entertainment ventures.

The Newport News, Virginia, native's first taste of professional sports came as Director, and later Vice President of Marketing for Olympia Arenas, the managing company of Detroit Red Wings, Joe Louis Arena and Fox Theater, from 1986-93. He started his career with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Shows in 1979, managing more than 100 engagements until August 1986.

Cogen currently serves on the Adventure Science Center Board of Directors and Executive Committee, the Fifth Third Advisory Board, the Nashville Chamber of Commerce Board and Audit and Finance Committee, the T.J. Martell Board and the Partnership 20/20 Lead Investor Group.

The graduate of Old Dominion University resides in Franklin, Tennessee, with his wife and their dog while their three children attend college.

SEAN HENRY PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Sean Henry (Twitter: @PREDSident) is entering his fifth season as the President/ Chief Operating Officer and Alternate Governor of the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Henry has brought a unique and aggressive approach that has led the unification of all business fronts creating new organizational levels of success on all fronts.

Since Henry joined the organization, the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena have enjoyed their most successful seasons to date. The Nashville Predators' Loyal Legion continues to grow in size and revenues in all areas. Sold-out games are now the norm in Smashville creating a passionate environment for the Predators and their incredible fans. Henry led a team that forged a partnership with Metro Nashville to secure Bridgestone Arena's new lease with the city of Nashville, keeping the downtown staple thriving and growing through 2028. Through renovations that include the new Nissan SoBro entrance, Tavern '96, the Fifth Avenue Pro Shop, the Lexus Lounge and more, Bridgestone Arena continues to evolve toward its ultimate goal to be the No.1 Sports and Entertainment venue in the world. These renovations, combined with incredible support from one of the strongest fan bases in the NHL and a synergized business approach between the arena and team created the fourth consecutive year of record-setting event levels at Bridgestone Arena making it once again one of this year's Top 10 busiest arenas in the United States.

Henry and the team's commitment to the community are best evidenced through the work of the Nashville Predators Foundation and the Predators' dedication to youth hockey development. The Foundation's grants and programs funded more than $1 million in programs and donations to 200 local organizations. The organization's Hearts of Gold program also infused the area with over 6,000 community service hours donated by the organization's employees, players and staff creating a special workplace environment and changing lives throughout Middle Tennessee. The organization will operate and grow hockey, figure skating and on-ice activities for all ages and skill levels through the newly constructed Ford Ice Center that debuts this season. This public/private partnership with Metro Nashville will allow for the introduction to skating and hockey to thousands of new participants every year and will enable current players expanded opportunities while enabling Nashville to become the country's southeast hub for countless tournaments and competitions.

Prior to joining the Predators, Henry spent 11 years with Palace Sports and Entertainment, serving as the Executive Vice President and COO overseeing business operations for the Tampa Bay Lightning, St. Pete Times Forum and Single-A baseball's Asheville Tourists. During this time, the company saw dramatic increases in all revenue areas. The then - St. Pete Times Forum became one of the busiest venues in the country, built around a Stanley Cup Championship in 2004.

Henry's two years prior to his stay in Tampa were spent as Vice President of Sales and Marketing with Unity Motion, the first company to deliver High Definition television systems to the residential market and the first to broadcast live HD programming across the United States and the first live sporting event in HD.

Henry started in the sports and entertainment industry in 1983 when he joined Volume Services Inc., as a busboy and would serve in various management roles with the company through 1997. In his time with Volume Services, Henry's clients included the Detroit Pistons, the St. Louis Rams, and the Washington Redskins.

Henry, a graduate of The State University of New York, married Tracey Manning, a.k.a. the Suburban Diva, 23 years ago. They have four children – sons Steven and Matthew, and daughters Amy and Jessica that never tire of his stories and attempts to recreate scenes from National Lampoon's Vacation on every one that they take, and are normally captured in the Diva's writings.

Henry serves on the boards of the Nashville Predators Foundation, The Nashville Downtown Partnership, The Nashville Sports Council and The Sports Fund and as an Adjunct Professor at Belmont University. He and Tracey are also very involved in their children's schools, sports teams and clubs.

MICHELLE KENNEDY — EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL COUNSEL & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators full-time in March 2008 as In-House Counsel. Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), accepted the additional charge of Chief Financial Officer for the Predators and Powers Management in 2010 while continuing to serve as the organization's General Counsel. In her current role, Kennedy serves as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group, in addition to overseeing all legal, finance, information technology and human resource matters. Kennedy is also extensively involved with key Sports Authority and Metro Government matters, and was a key component in the renewal of Bridgestone Arena's lease with the city of Nashville through 2028.

Kennedy began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an Associate Director of Athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school.

Kennedy obtained a B.A. in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Kentucky, Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

CHRIS JUNGHANS — SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Chris Junghans (Twitter: @cjjunghans) enters his sixth season as Senior Vice President, Corporate Development for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena and his 12th season with the company. In his tenure as Senior Vice President, both the Premium Seats and Sponsorship departments have achieved double-digit revenue growth every season. Chris has led the organization's efforts in securing long-term partnerships with such companies as Nissan North America, Dunkin Donuts, Remington, Tropicana Casinos, Yazoo Brewing Company and AT&T. In addition, Chris has been instrumental in growing the Premium Seats department through the creation of new suite products including the Lexus Lounge, Lexus Inner Circle, Opera Boxes, Bench Seats and the Cumberland 501 Club.

Prior to his role as Senior Vice President, Junghans led the Premium Seats division for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. During his tenure as both a Director and Vice President, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent increase in sales. In addition, he successfully directed the single largest renewal in company history – achieving a 125 percent renewal rate.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers as a Ticket Sales Account Executive and quickly moved through the ranks. While in Florida, Chris developed programs and services that led to significant increases in both Group and Suite Sales.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Among his many accomplishments, including being selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 11th Round of the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft, he ranks his family as his biggest accomplishment. He married his high school sweetheart, Carolina in 1999 and they have three children – Lia (13), Alex (9) and Sofie (5). Junghans currently serves on the East Williamson Athletics Board of Directors and enjoys coaching youth baseball in his spare time.

NAT HARDEN — SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES

An "original Predator" who started with the franchise in 1997, Nat Harden (Twitter: @natharden) is responsible for all tickets sales and service for the Nashville Predators. Under his direction, the Nashville Predators have enjoyed one their most successful sales season to date, selling out 19 home games, fourth most in franchise history. Additionally, the Predators season ticket renewal number will surpass 90 percent for the fifth consecutive season under Harden's leadership.

Harden started with the Predators as a Fan Relations Account Service Executive before becoming a Corporate Account Executive in 2000. He was promoted to Season-Ticket Sales Manager prior to the 2003-04 season, Director of Ticket Sales in 2006, Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2007 and Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2013. Since leading the ticket sales department, the Preds have increased attendance by more than 25 percent and renewed their season-ticket holders at an average of 90 percent.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a master's degree in Sports Administration, Harden played baseball for the Bulldogs from 1992-96. Since taking over the season ticket sales, he has required all employees to ring a Mississippi State/Nashville Predators cowbell upon a sale.

Harden and his wife, Paige, reside in Nashville with their two children – 11-year-old son, Ty, and 8-year-old daughter, Clara.

GERRY HELPER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

A veteran of more than 35 years in hockey having been with the National Hockey League or one of its teams since 1979, Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and has served in various communications roles. In addition to heading up the club's public and media relations efforts, Helper assists in relations with the Sports Authority, Sports Council, Metro and State Governments. Helper works closely with upper management on external organizational and franchise communication issues. He has also served in various capacities on the board of the Predators Foundation, and is currently the Vice President. Since its inception, the Foundation has distributed more than $4 million to Nashville-area charitable and community service organizations, including a single-season record of $410,652 in 2013-14.

Helper has also been active with USA Hockey, serving as a communications liaison for the United States' silver medal-winning entry at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and on USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99.

Helper oversees the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, the team's web site and community relations initiatives. He was on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board from 2004-09, and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to the Bridgestone Arena. In 2011-12, the Predators Communications Department received the Dick Dillman Award, presented by the PHWA to the top communications department in each conference, and was a finalist again in 2012-13.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's vice president of communications. He assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86). He also worked several Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Games in his time with the League and the Sabres.

Helper served on the board of directors for the Middle Tennessee YMCA and Joe C. Davis Camp Widjiwagan, and is currently on the board of the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a B.A. in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of leadership music.

Helper resides in Franklin, Tennessee, with his wife, Kim, and daughters, Renee and Abigail.

BETH SNIDER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE

Beth Snider began her second stint as Senior Vice President of Finance in November 2012 after originally joining the Predators organization as Director of Finance in May 2000. As head of the Finance Department, Snider is responsible for all finance functions, budgeting and forecasting, and directly manages the team's relationship with the NHL with respect to financial matters, including the preparation of the annual Hockey Related Revenue reporting process. She also manages the franchise's various insurance policies and relationships with brokers.

Snider's extensive history and exposure to both the Predators and Bridgestone Arena's financial affairs were integral in securing a new lease arrangement with the city of Nashville in the summer of 2012, and has helped merge the two entities into a more efficient business unit.

Snider spent five seasons as Director of Finance before being promoted to Vice President in 2005. She served in that role until 2010, when she transitioned into a part-time role as a Financial Specialist until reassuming her role as Vice President. Snider's first exposure to the arena/organization came in 1996 when she oversaw the then-Nashville Arena's audit for Arthur Andersen LLP accounting firm during its pre-opening stage.

Snider received both a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in accounting from the University of Alabama. She has sat on the board and numerous committees for the Tennessee Society of CPAs and is currently an active member.

Beth resides in Franklin with her husband Dwayne and sons, Eston and Grant.

Allison Simms joined the Nashville Predators as Director of Human Resources in 2006, was elevated to Senior Director in 2008, and promoted to her current role as Vice President of Human Resources in 2010. Her responsibilities include overseeing all human resources functions for both the Nashville Predators and Powers Management.

Simms began her career in human resources in the insurance and healthcare fields before transitioning to the sports & entertainment industry. An alumna of Middle Tennessee State University, Simms has a bachelor's degree in education and is an active member of the Society for Human Resource Management.

As a Nashville native, Simms stays involved in the community with a passion for animal rescue. She and her husband, Matt, reside in Nashville.

DAVID CHADWELL VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENT OPERATIONS

David Chadwell is the current Vice President of Event Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena, a role he assumed in August of 2012. In this role, Chadwell is responsible for all guest experiences at Bridgestone Arena. He also oversees the box office, security, guest services and the AT&T Fan Information desk. Chadwell joined Bridgestone Arena/ Nashville Predators full-time in 2003 as Box Office Event Manager, advanced to Assistant Director of Ticketing in 2004 and Director of Ticket Operations in 2005.

Before coming to Bridgestone Arena, Chadwell worked with Starwood Amphitheatre and Creative Artist Agency and spent time on tour with the legendary B.B. King. A Middle Tennessee State University alumnus, Chadwell has a bachelor's degree in mass communication with an emphasis in Music Business. During his tenure with Bridgestone Arena, Chadwell has received three awards for leadership, as voted on by his peers. He has been a member of the International Ticketing Association (INTIX) since 2005 and International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) since 2012.

A Nashville native, Chadwell loves to travel with his wife Scarlett. They reside in Lebanon, Tennessee, with their three dogs and a cat.

TIM FRIEDENBERGER VICE PRESIDENT OF FACILITY OPERATIONS

Tim Friedenberger is in his second season serving as the Vice President of Facility Operations with the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

Friedenberger began his career in sports and entertainment with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992. During his tenure, he served as the Lead Ice Technician, Director of Operations, and Vice President of Facility Operations.

He got his first taste of the entertainment industry while touring around the country with various types of productions, and cut his teeth on the business of ice as a project manager installing ice rinks throughout the United States, Europe and Asia. Friedenberger's passion and dedication to ice and hockey has earned him the respect of his peers throughout the NHL.

Tim is now a proud resident of Nolensville, Tennessee, where he resides with his wife Ginger and three boys whom all love hockey and Tennessee.

DAVID KELLS VICE PRESIDENT OF BOOKING

David Kells (Twitter: @DKnaround) has been with Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators since 2005. During his tenure he has served as the Conversion Manager, Event Manager, Director of Marketing and is currently the Vice President of Booking.

David quickly developed a passion for live entertainment after working his first concert at the age of 18. Over the course of his career he has worked for SFX Entertainment, Great Big Shows, and AC Entertainment. David has been involved in producing such festivals as Dancin' In the District (Nashville), Sundown in the City (Knoxville), Sewanee Bound Music Festival (Live Oak, Florida) and Birmingham City Stages (Birmingham, Alabama).

In addition to helping oversee Bridgestone Arena's rise to one of the top venues in the U.S., Kells has received personal recognition for his hard work in the industry. Most recently, Kells was nominated for Pollstar's Facility Executive of the Year and the International Arena Buyers Association's Venue Executive of the Year. A lover of hockey from a young age, David's hockey career peaked in 1980 when he received the Most Improved Player Award from the Massena Minor Hockey Association.

David is a proud resident of Inglewood, where he resides with his wife Lucy and daughter Kathryn.

BRITT KINCHELOE VICE PRESIDENT OF SERVICE AND RETENTION

Britt Kincheloe first joined the staff of then called 'Nashville Arena' prior to its grand opening in December 1996. During her nearly 20 years on staff, Kincheloe has worked at the switchboard, in the box office, and in marketing and group sales before joining the premium seats department. Since 2011, Kincheloe has worked as the Senior Director of Service and Retention, and as Vice President as of September 2014, a position where she oversees the service departments for Corporate Development, Premium Services and season-ticket holders.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University with a bachelor's degree in communication studies, Kincheloe is passionate about Mickey Fisher Memorial Scholarship initiatives and enjoys traveling and spending time with family.

DANNY SHAKLAN VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING

Danny Shaklan (Twitter: @dshaklan) joined the Nashville Predators marketing department in 2010. His current responsibilities include overseeing all marketing functions, including creative, online and grassroots marketing, media buying, sponsor and ticket sales activations and social media for both the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

Prior joining the Predators, he spent five years with Country Music Television (CMT) in the Consumer Marketing department where he helped promote CMT Crossroads, Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders: Making the Team, Gone Country and World's Strictest Parents. Shaklan started his sports career working at Major League Lacrosse, owned by celebrity fitness guru, Jake Steinfeld (Body By Jake).

Born in New York, Shaklan is now a proud resident of Smashville, where he resides with his wife Jen and their dog Mo.

BRIAN POILE DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian Poile enters his fifth season with the Nashville Predators as the Director of Hockey Operations in 2014-15. Poile's primary responsibilities include managing the club's roster, payroll, salary cap, research and negotiation of player contracts, salary arbitration preparation and overseeing minor league affiliation agreements with the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals and ECHL's Cincinnati Cyclones. He is also involved with fiscal and strategic planning, evaluating pro and amateur players, compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, administration with NHL's Central Registry as well as the day-to-day business operations of the hockey department.

Poile began his career with the NHL's Dallas Stars, spending one season as the Stars' Director of Team Services and three seasons as the Director of Hockey Operations for their AHL affiliate, the Utah Grizzlies, in Salt Lake City. In his role in Utah, Poile managed the Grizzlies hockey department, club roster, budget, player contracts, team travel, schedules, training camps, AHL/ECHL/CHL scouting and player call-ups. He also served as an Alternate Team Governor, managed the Grizzlies affiliation agreements with the Dallas Stars (NHL), Montreal Canadiens (NHL), Lexington Men-o-War (ECHL), New Mexico Scorpions (CHL) and Idaho Steelheads (ECHL) as well as the administration and compliance of the AHL and Professional Hockey Players Association Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Hockey roots run deep in the Poile family. He is the son of Predators' President of Hockey Operations/General Manager, David Poile, and grandson of Hockey Hall of Fame Inductee, Norman "Bud" Poile. Poile earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Boston College in 2000.

Poile, his wife, Valerie, and dogs, Wiley and Dexter reside in Nashville.

PAUL FENTON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his 17th season with the Predators, and his ninth as the club's assistant general manager, Paul Fenton has been instrumental in bringing in many of Nashville's core players through the draft, trades and free-agent signings.

After serving as the director of player personnel for the Predators' first eight seasons, Fenton was promoted to assistant general manager on June 5, 2006, where he oversees the Predators' amateur player development, manages the team's professional and amateur scouting staff and advises President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile on player personnel decisions. He has assisted in player acquisitions since joining the Predators and managed the club's Entry Draft efforts from 2003 (when the team selected Ryan Suter, Shea Weber, Kevin Klein and Alexander Sulzer) until 2008 when he passed the torch to Chief Amateur Scout Jeff Kealty.

Of the 34 players the Predators used in 2013-14, 18 of them were drafted and developed by the team – including 10 of the team's top 12 point getters for the second consecutive season – while four more were acquired by Nashville before making their NHL debut, meaning 22 of 34 players used were "homegrown."

Fenton also serves as general manager of the Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League, who made their AHL-record 12th consecutive playoff appearance in 2014 and finished with more than 90 points for the ninth time in 11 seasons despite a youthful roster that contained only six players over the age of 25. The Admirals extended their playoff streak thanks to a 16-5-1 record in their final 22 games.

Milwaukee has won four division titles in the past 11 seasons, and became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points in eight consecutive seasons from 2002-03 to 2010-11. Fenton also served as Associate GM for Team USA at the 2011 World Championships.

The Springfield, Massachusetts, native joined the Predators after spending five seasons in the Anaheim Ducks' hockey operations department. He served as a scout during his first three seasons with the Ducks and as the chief professional scout the last two years. A number of players drafted during Fenton's run with the Ducks – such as Paul Kariya, Steve Rucchin, Ruslan Salei and Mike LeClerc – led Anaheim to the 2003 Stanley Cup Final Fenton also helped facilitate one of the Anaheim franchise's largest trades, the February 1996 acquisition of Teemu Selanne.

Fenton played eight seasons in the NHL before joining the scouting ranks. He amassed 100 goals and 83 assists in 411 NHL contests while playing for seven different NHL teams, including San Jose during the Sharks' inaugural season (1991-92). In 1989-90, the former Boston University Terrier scored an NHL career-high 32 goals for the Winnipeg Jets, and his playing resume also includes three selections to AHL and IHL All-Star teams.

Paul and his wife, Nona, reside in Brentwood. They have two sons, P.J., who plays for EV Landshut in Germany's second league, and Owen, a doctoral student in chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

JEFF KEALTY CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Jeff Kealty enters his eighth season as the Nashville Predators Chief Amateur Scout and 14th campaign with the organization in 2014-15. While his primary responsibility is monitoring the best draft-eligible talent around the globe and spearheading the team's annual efforts at the NHL Entry Draft, Kealty also keeps an eye on the development of prospects in the CHL, NCAA and other junior leagues across North America and Europe.

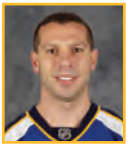
The Boston native has overseen Nashville's past seven drafts, helping to bolster the club's depth across the board, selecting 33 forwards, 17 defensemen and six goalies since his first year running Nashville's draft table in 2008. In 2014, Kealty and his staff took advantage of having three selections in the draft's first two rounds, the first time that has happened in since 2009, by taking offensively dynamic forward Kevin Fiala with the 11th selection, as well as power forward Vladislav Kamenev and two-way defenseman Jack Dougherty in the second round. The class was rounded out with a pair of potential high-end offensive producers (Justin Kirkland and Viktor Arvidsson) and developing two-way defensemen (Joonas Lyytinen and Aaron Irving). The 2014 Draft continued the momentum developed by the Predators amateur scouting staff which started in 2013 when they were able to choose the top player on their draft list for the first time in franchise history in Seth Jones (fourth overall), while also welcoming 2012 first rounder Filip Forsberg – who the team had ranked third his draft year and was acquired from Washington – and continued throughout the 2013-14 campaign.

While homegrown selections Jones, Mattias Ekholm, Colton Sissons and Marek Mazanec performed admirably in their rookie seasons, others selected early in the Kealty era, such as 2008 second-round pick Roman Josi and 2009 fourth-round selection Craig Smith, had breakout campaigns for the Predators.

Deeper down in the organization, 2011 second rounder Miikka Salomaki led the AHL-affiliate Milwaukee Admirals in points during his first season in North America, while 2012 draftees Brendan Leipsic (WHL), Pontus Aberg (Sweden) and Jimmy Vesey (NCAA) were stars in their respective leagues. At the 2014 World Junior Championship, 2013 selection Juuse Saros was dominant in goal for Team Finland, while countryman and fellow 2013 draftee Saku Maenalanen led the tournament in goals as four Finnish Preds prospects won gold medals in Malmo, Sweden.

A former first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty was signed by Nashville as a free agent in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury. Kealty, his wife Lynn, daughter Lydia and son James (twins) reside in Norfolk, Massachusetts.

SCOTT NICHOL DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT



Scott Nichol (Twitter: @RealScottNichol) enters his second season as the Predators Director of Player Development in 2014-15. In his role, Nichol is responsible for following and evaluating prospects drafted by Nashville, in addition to working with players on all levels throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. He assists them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Nichol hung up the skates and rejoined the Predators organization in May 2013 after completing a 20-season professional career which spanned from 1994-95 to 2012-13. The Edmonton, Alberta native, who played 209 regular season games (24g-23a-47pts) for the Predators from 2005-09, posted 127 points (56g-71a) and 916 penalty minutes in 662 NHL games with Buffalo, Calgary, Chicago, Nashville, San Jose and St. Louis and 211 points (90g-121a) and 1,029 penalty minutes in 398 games at the American and International Hockey League level with Rochester, Detroit and Milwaukee. He helped the San Jose Sharks advance to back-to-back Western Conference Finals in 2010 and 2011, and won the AHL's Calder Cup as a member of the Rochester Americans in 1996.

Perennially one of the NHL's top face-off men, Nichol, led the League in face-off efficiency in 2007-08 with Nashville and during the 2009-10 season with San Jose. He also holds a Nashville franchise record for shorthanded goals in a game/period with two in the second period of a 5-2 victory at St. Louis on Jan. 19, 2008.

Buffalo's ninth selection, 272nd overall (11th round), in the 1993 Entry Draft was coached by Predators Radio Analyst Brent Peterson with the Portland Winterhawks from 1992-94, posting 157 points (71g-86a) and 290 penalty minutes in 132 Western Hockey League games.

Nichol and his wife Christie, sons Hayden and Foster, and daughter Sophia reside in Rochester, New York.

COACHING STAFF

PETER LAVIOLETTE HEAD COACH

Hired as the second head coach in Nashville Predators history on May 6, 2014, Peter Laviolette brings a winning resume and an aggressive offensive philosophy to the organization for the 2014-15 season. Having known what it takes to reach every team's ultimate goal after winning the 2006 Stanley Cup with the Carolina Hurricanes, Laviolette's mission will be instilling the intensity and urgency necessary to help veteran players thrive and young players reach their potential.

In parts of 12 seasons with the New York Islanders (2001-03), Carolina Hurricanes (2003-09) and Philadelphia Flyers (2009-14), Laviolette has compiled a career coaching record of 389-282-(25)-63 (866 points), with each of the three teams improving exponentially in the first full season after he took the helm: the Islanders finished with 96 points and the eighth-best record in the League in 2001-02 after finishing 30th with 52 points the season prior; the Hurricanes went from 23rd in the NHL with 76 points to fourth with 112 points in 2005-06; and the Flyers improved from 88 points and 18th in the NHL to 106 points and fourth in 2010-11. Laviolette won 52 games in his first full season with Carolina in 2005-06 – earning him runner-up Jack Adams Award honors in the closest vote in award history – in addition to recording back-to-back 47-win seasons with Philadelphia in 2010-11 and 2011-12, and hitting the 40-win mark on three other occasions (2001-02, 2006-07 and 2007-08).

Including his Stanley Cup win in 2006 with Carolina, Laviolette has made six postseason appearances, posting a series record of 9-5. He led the Islanders to back-to-back Stanley Cup Playoff appearances in 2002 and 2003, ending a seven-year postseason absence for the franchise, and advanced beyond the opening round three times with the Flyers, including the 2009-10 campaign, when he took over midseason and proceeded to lead the team to Game Six of the Stanley Cup Final.

Laviolette's offensive-minded philosophy is evidenced by his teams finishing in the Top 10 in goals six times in eight full NHL seasons, with three of those being top-three results. When coaching a team for a full season, Laviolette's squad has never finished lower than 13th in goals for. That doesn't include his two midseason takeovers where the Hurricanes improved their goals average from 1.87 to 2.23 when he moved behind the bench in 2003-04, and when the Flyers finished eighth in offensive output in 2009-10.

Multiple young, developing players – who have gone on to become dependable NHL players and in some cases superstars – were cultivated under Laviolette's watch. Most recently in Philadelphia, Claude Giroux played his first full season under Laviolette in 2009-10, and has become one of the NHL's elite offensive producers, posting 93 points and finishing fourth in Hart Trophy voting in 2011-12; James Van Riemsdyk played his first NHL games under Laviolette in 2009-10, then hit the 21-goal mark as a 21-year-old in his sophomore season a year later; Jakub Voracek improved his point-per-game average from .58 with Columbus to .75 with Laviolette's Flyers teams after a trade in the summer of 2011; Wayne Simmonds doubled his goal total from 14 in 2010-11 with Los Angeles to 28 in his first season with Philadelphia in 2011-12; and Matt Read posted 24 goals as a rookie in the same season. Former Predator Scott Hartnell also hit career highs in goals (37) and points (67) in 2011-12, being named to his only All-Star Game.

In Carolina, Eric Staal played his first four-plus seasons under Laviolette, notching a career-high 45 goals and 100 points to finish fourth in Hart Trophy voting during the Cup-winning campaign; Justin Williams, a three-time Stanley Cup winner and the 2014 Conn Smythe Trophy recipient as playoff MVP, posted his top-two point totals and only two 30-goal seasons under Laviolette in 2005-06 and 2006-07. Current Predator Matt Cullen also posted his two best point totals of his 1,150-game NHL career under Laviolette, notching 49 points in both 2005-06 and 2007-08. Finally with the Islanders in 2001-02, a 24-year-old Mark Parrish hit the 30-goal mark for the only time in his career.

Second in wins among U.S.-born NHL coaches and one of just eight men employed as an NHL head coach at the start of the 2014-15 campaign to have won a Stanley Cup, Laviolette has served as head coach for the United States at three World Championships: in 2004 when the nation earned its first medal in eight years, a bronze, in Prague, Czech Republic; the following spring at the 2005 Championships in Innsbruck and Vienna, Austria; and most recently in 2014 in Minsk, Belarus.

He has also represented his country in four Olympic Games, first as a player in the 1988 Calgary Games and the 1994 Lillehammer Games, then as a head coach at the 2006 Torino Games, and an assistant at the 2014 Sochi Games.

A native of Franklin, Massachusetts, Laviolette began his coaching career with the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers in 1997-98, coaching them to a 37-24-9 record and a spot in the Northern Conference Final. He was hired as head coach of the American Hockey League's Providence Bruins following his rookie season in West Virginia, and proceeded to lead the Bruins to an AHL-best 56-16-4-4 record during the 1998-99 season and the 1999 Calder Cup title. Given Providence's 19-49-7-5 record and last-place finish in the AHL the season prior to Laviolette's takeover, his efforts earned him the 1999 Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as AHL coach of the year. He spent one more season in Providence, with the team advancing to the 2000 Eastern Conference Final, before being promoted to an assistant coach under Pat Burns and later Mike Keenan with the parent Boston Bruins, which he assumed for a single campaign (2000-01) until his hiring as 10th coach in New York Islanders history on May 23, 2001.

The former defenseman began his coaching career after 11 seasons playing professionally in the National, International and American Hockey Leagues, and internationally for the U.S. National Team, from 1986-97. He amassed 268 points (78g-190a) in 594 minor-league games in the IHL (Indianapolis, Colorado, Denver, Flint and San Diego) and AHL (Binghamton and Providence) from 1986-97, while appearing in 12 games for the New York Rangers in 1988-89. Laviolette also spent the majority of the 1987-88 and 1993-94 seasons with Team USA preparing for the Olympics, recording a pair of assists in six games at the 1988 Games, then wearing the "C" and scoring one goal in eight games at the 1994 Games.

The Westfield State (Mass.) University graduate finished his collegiate career ranked 14th on the school's all-time points list (43g-44a-87pts) and was named its alumnus of the year in 1988 and inducted into its sports hall of fame in 2002. A three-year captain, Laviolette led the Owls in scoring and was an MASCAC all-conference defenseman his senior season.

Laviolette and his wife, Kristen, have three children – sons Peter and Jack, and daughter Elisabeth.

PHIL HOUSLEY ASSISTANT COACH

Phil Housley enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Nashville Predators in 2014-15 with his primary responsibilities being to run the team's up-and-coming defensive corps and head up the power play. In his first season behind an NHL bench in 2013-14, the fourth-highest scoring blueliner in NHL history mentored the youngest group of defensemen in the League (24.02 years), helping Shea Weber and Roman Josi attain career offensive numbers while further developing rising young talent Ryan Ellis and rookies Seth Jones, Mattias Ekholm and Victor Bartley. Housley also oversaw marked improvement on the man-advantage, as the power play rose to 12th in the NHL at 19.2 percent in his first season at its helm.

Since entering the coaching ranks in 2004, Housley helped USA Hockey reach new heights, highlighted by a gold medal-winning performance at the 2013 World Junior Championship with a team that included Jones and Predators 2012 third-round pick Jimmy Vesey. He also served as an assistant at five other international competitions, helping the U.S. National Team earn bronze medals at the 2013 World Championship and both the 2007 and 2011 World Junior Championships, while also serving behind the bench at the 2014 World Championship, alongside new Predators Head Coach Peter Laviolette, and the 2011 edition of the tournament. He was also one of two head coaches for the inaugural CCM/USA Hockey All-American Prospects Game in 2012.

The highest scoring American-born defenseman amassed 1,232 points (338g-894a) in 1,495 NHL regular-season games – sixth-most games all-time among blueliners – in a career that spanned 21 seasons (1982-2003) with eight teams (Buffalo, Winnipeg, St. Louis, Calgary, New Jersey, Washington, Chicago and Toronto). Housley was also a seven-time All-Star Game selection, a 1992 Second-Team All-Star, finished among the Top Five in Norris Trophy voting four times, and was runner-up for the 1983 Calder Trophy as an 18-year-old. A first-round pick (sixth overall) by the Buffalo Sabres in the 1982 NHL Entry Draft, Housley was inducted into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2004.

The 50-year-old native of South St. Paul, Minnesota, also played extensively for his country. A seven-time member of the U.S. National Team at the World Championship (1982, 1986, 1989, 1996, 2000, 2001, 2003), Housley helped Team USA to one of its biggest international victories ever by capturing the 1996 World Cup of Hockey title, and also earned a silver medal at the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics. He was inducted into the IIHF Hall of Fame in 2012, received the USA Hockey Distinguished Achievement Award in 2013 for his outstanding contributions on or off the ice to the sport in America, the 2008 Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States, and USA Hockey's Bob Johnson Award in 2000 for excellence in international competition.

Housley and his wife, Minnesota State Senator Karin, have four children, Taylor, Reide, Wilson and Avery.

KEVIN MCCARTHY ASSISTANT COACH

Kevin McCarthy brings more than 35 years of professional hockey playing, coaching and front-office experience to the Nashville Predators organization after being named an assistant coach on May 6, 2014. McCarthy's responsibilities in his first season with the Predators organization will include running the team's forward corps, in addition to heading up the penalty kill.

Prior to joining the Predators, McCarthy served as an assistant coach on Peter Laviolette's staff in Philadelphia for five seasons from 2009-14. The duo joined the Flyers on Dec. 4, 2009 and proceeded to lead them to Game Six of the 2010 Stanley Cup Final, then see the team make an 18-point improvement during their first full season in 2010-11. Philadelphia won 47 games and advanced past the opening round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs in both 2010-11 and 2011-12, with McCarthy helping the likes of Claude Giroux, James Van Riemsdyk, Jakub Voracek, Wayne Simmonds and former Predator Scott Hartnell blossom into NHL stars or hit career years during his time working with them.

The bulk of McCarthy's work behind the bench came with the Hartford Whalers/Carolina Hurricanes organization for 16 seasons from 1992-2009, including its Stanley Cup-winning campaign in 2005-06 and another Stanley Cup Final appearance in 2001-02.

After three seasons as an assistant for the Whalers (1992-95), he served as head coach for the franchise's AHL affiliates in Springfield (1995-97) and New Haven (1997-99), compiling a 156-123-36 record. He rejoined the parent team for the 1999-2000 season, and spent the next nine years as a Hurricanes assistant. In addition to team success, he helped Eric Staal go from an 18-year-old rookie to a 100-point producer and veterans like 2014 Conn Smythe Trophy winner Justin Williams and current Predator Matt Cullen experience career years.

McCarthy's coaching career started as a player-assistant coach for the AHL's Hershey Bears (1987-88), before a full-time move behind the bench as an assistant in 1988-89 and head coach in 1989-90. He also has front-office experience as the Flyers Director of Player Development from 1990-92.

The former defenseman spent 10 seasons in the NHL with the Flyers, Vancouver Canucks and Pittsburgh Penguins from 1977-87, posting 258 points (67g-191a) in 527 career games. During his time with Vancouver, he served as the Canucks' team captain for three seasons (1979-82) and was named a starter in the 1981 NHL All-Star Game. A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, McCarthy played his junior hockey for his hometown Clubs and Monarchs of the Western Canada Hockey League, and was a member of Canada's 1975 World Junior Championship entry that earned a silver medal.

The 56-year-old and his wife, Rhonda, reside in Nashville. They have three daughters: Melissa, Meaghan and Mallory.

COACHING STAFF

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his 11th season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators organization. Good, who will travel with the team full-time for the second consecutive season in 2014-15, also runs the club's prospect development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on January 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June of 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." During the summer of 2010, he designed and outfitted the new weight room at Bridgestone Arena with triple the amount of space to facilitate optimal in-season training.

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the Director of Speed-Strength and Conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the Long Beach Ice Dogs (ECHL). The Colorado native served as the Assistant Speed-Strength and Conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs (IHL). He also served as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the Student Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, Olympic weightlifting and kettlebell training.

Good and his wife, Amanda, reside in Franklin, Tennessee.

BEN VANDERKLOK GOALTENDING COACH

Ben Vanderklok enters his first season as the Nashville Predators Goaltending Coach in 2014-15 after serving as the organization's assistant goaltending coach for five seasons from 2009-14. Named to the position on June 12, 2014, Vanderklok will work with all netminders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), Cincinnati (ECHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

Since joining the Predators prior to the 2009-10 season, Vanderklok has worked with nearly all the goalies within the organization, from Pekka Rinne, Carter Hutton, Anders Lindback, Chris Mason and Dan Ellis at the NHL level to Jeremy Smith, Magnus Hellberg, Marek Mazanec, Mark Dekanich and Scott Darling with Milwaukee and Cincinnati.

His work was integral in Mazanec's transition to North America in 2013-14, which saw him play 25 games with the Predators, becoming the youngest in club history to record a shutout on Nov. 19, 2013 at Detroit and being named the NHL's Rookie of the Month for November 2013. Also last season, Darling came to the organization with one AHL game to his credit, and ended 2013-14 ranked among the league leaders in save percentage (.933), goals-against average (2.00) and shutouts (6) for the Admirals.

The Welland, Ontario native has also worked as goalie coach of the Ontario Hockey League's Niagara IceDogs since 2008, helping them reach the playoffs for six consecutive seasons and reach the OHL Final in 2011-12. During his first four seasons with the IceDogs, Vanderklok helped Hamilton, Ontario native Mark Visentin become a first-round pick of the Phoenix Coyotes (27th overall), earn silver (2011) and bronze (2012) medals with Team Canada at the World Junior Championship, become 2011 OHL Goaltender of the Year, and earn the 2012 Dave Pinkney Trophy as the goalie with the lowest goals-against average. Visentin also broke a 62-season OHL record for most shutouts in a season in 2011-12 (10). In 2012-13 and 2013-14, he also coached Brent Moran, who was the third-ranked North American skater in Central Scouting's 2014 rankings, and was selected 115th overall (fourth round) in the 2014 Entry Draft by Dallas.

Vanderklok started his coaching career with the Port Colborne Pirates of the Golden Horseshoe Junior Hockey League (Junior B) from 2003-06 before instructing and training Brock University's (Ontario) goalies from 2007-09. Since 2003, he has run Ben Vanderklok Goaltending, which conducts camps and clinics in the St. Catharine's, Ontario region.

A dual Canadian-Dutch citizen, Vanderklok retired from play following four seasons (2000-04) and two league titles in 2002 and 2003 with the Amsterdam Tigers of the Netherlands Elite League. He played a pair of seasons with the OHL's Barrie Colts from 1998-2000.

The 32-year-old Vanderklok, his wife, Marlene, and daughter, Ava, reside in Brentwood.

COACHING STAFF

LAWRENCE FELONEY VIDEO COACH

Lawrence Feloney enters his fifth season in the Nashville Predators organization and second with the title of video coach after serving as video coordinator from 2010-13. He is responsible for video analysis of all pre-scout and Predators game film, manages the organization's video systems, and the production of instructional videos for players and prospects throughout the organization. He also provides video support for Nashville's development camp, the NHL trade deadline and NHL Entry Draft.

For the first time in 2014, Feloney received the opportunity to represent his country, serving as video coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the IIHF World Championship in Minsk, Belarus. He handled all aspects of the team's video preparation, scouting and review for the tournament, working alongside Team USA and Predators Head Coach Peter Laviolette, and Team USA and Predators Assistant Coach Phil Housley.

Prior to joining the Predators, Feloney spent four seasons as the video coordinator for the New Jersey Devils top developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Lowell Devils from 2006-10.

The Natick, Massachusetts, native started his work in video while serving as team manager and video coordinator for the University of Massachusetts-Amherst men's hockey from 2003-05. Feloney graduated from UMass-Amherst with a bachelor's degree in Sports Management in 2005.

TRAINING STAFF

ANDY HOSLER HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Andy Hosler enters his second season as the Predators Head Athletic Trainer and eighth in the organization in 2014-15. Hosler has been a certified athletic trainer for the last 11 years, nine of which have been spent in professional hockey.

In his role as Head Athletic Trainer, Hosler manages the health and rehab of players throughout the Nashville organization. He served as Nashville's assistant athletic trainer for six seasons from 2007-13 before assuming the head role for the 2013-14 campaign.

Prior to joining the Predators, the Monroe, Michigan, native spent two seasons as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Utah Grizzlies of the ECHL. Hosler earned a master's degree in kinesiology at Michigan State University while serving as a graduate assistant, working with the Spartan wrestling and football teams during the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. Hosler earned his bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University, working across the athletic department spectrum from gymnastics to football.

Hosler is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed Athletic Trainer through the state of Tennessee. He also holds a membership through the Professional Hockey Athletic Trainer's Society.

Hosler resides in Brentwood, Tennessee, with his wife, Elizabeth and son, Henry.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers enters his 17th season as Head Equipment Manager of the Nashville Predators in 2014-15. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers served as the Equipment Manager for the U.S. Men's National Team in his second Olympic Games at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi after having first done so in Torino in 2006. He has also represented his country in seven IIHF World Championships (1998-2002, 2005, 2013), most recently in Stockholm, Sweden and Helsinki, Finland in 2013 where Team USA earned a bronze medal. He's also served as the United States' equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany. Elected President of the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM) in June 2012 after previously serving as its Western Conference Representative, Rogers was the Head Equipment Manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game in Dallas. The veteran of more than 1,900 professional games worked his 1,500th game as an equipment manager in professional hockey on January 10, 2009 and his 1,000th game with the Predators on November 12, 2011.

Prior to joining the Nashville organization in July 1998, the SUNY Brockport graduate spent seven seasons as the Equipment Manager and Director of Team Travel for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Rogers spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the Hampton Roads Admirals of the ECHL in 1989-90.

Pete, his wife, Judy, and daughter, Alexandra, reside in Brentwood, Tennessee.

PETE WEBER PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

The "Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber (twitter: @petewebersports) begins his 17th season in 2014-15 as the team's primary play-by-play announcer. He has missed calling just two games during his lengthy Predators' broadcast assignment, having called 1,196 regular-season games, along with each of the team's 56 playoff contests.

His insights are called upon by local sportstalk radio and television, and his writing is regularly featured on the team's website. In January 2013, Weber won his second Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year award, as voted by the National Association of Sportscasters and Sportswriters.

Pete has served the last seven seasons as an "insider" on Sirius/XM's NHL Network Radio, and has served as co-host of Slapshot Radio since the fall of 2009.

In addition to his roles with the team, Weber has served as co-host of SportsNight from 2003 through 2005, filled in as host on ESPN Radio, called two Music City Bowl games and helps out on Nashville Sounds baseball broadcasts. He has also produced and hosted two podcasts: "This Week in the Minor (baseball) Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber's hockey experience includes three seasons (1978-81) as analyst on the Los Angeles Kings radio and telecasts, two seasons (1995-97) of radio play-by-play for the Buffalo Sabres and coverage of the U.S. hockey team at the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, along with duties as host for Buffalo's cable and radio coverage. At the college level, he called games for his alma mater (University of Notre Dame) from 1974 to 1976, and the University at Buffalo from 1976 through 1978.

Outside of hockey, Weber spent 15 seasons in Triple-A baseball with Albuquerque, Rochester and Buffalo, where he was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He served one season as TV play-by-play for the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics and was part of the broadcast team for each of the Buffalo Bills' four Super Bowl appearances.

A regional Emmy award winner (2003, 2008, and 2010), Pete is on the Board of Governors for the Mid-South's chapter for the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences. In addition, he is on the advisory board for the Tennessee Radio Hall of Fame.

A native of Galesburg, Illinois, Pete holds two degrees from the University of Notre Dame. He and his wife Claudia, reside in Nashville.

STU GRIMSON TV COLOR ANALYST

Stu Grimson (Twitter: @asgrimson) enters his first season as color analyst for the Preds television broadcasts on FOX Sports in 2014-15 after working the past six seasons as a color analyst on the Predators Radio Network. Grimson currently serves as the President of the Nashville Predators Alumni Association and as President of the Nashville Jr. Predators.

Grimson, who played in 30 games with the Predators during the 2001-02 season, posted 17 goals, 22 assists and 2,113 penalty minutes in 729 career games with Calgary, Chicago, Anaheim, Detroit, Hartford, Carolina, Los Angeles and Nashville from 1987-2003.

After retiring from the NHL following the 2002-03 season, Grimson returned to school, finished his undergraduate degree and earned a law degree from the University of Memphis in December of 2005. The Kamloops, British Columbia native then went to work as a labor lawyer for the NHLPA for two years before returning to Nashville to work as a defense attorney with Kay, Griffin, Enkema & Colbert, PLLC.

Grimson resides in Brentwood with his wife, Pam, their three daughters, Erin, Hannah and Jayne and son, Kristjan.

BROADCASTERS

BRENT PETERSON RADIO COLOR ANALYST

A Nashville Predator since Day One, Brent Peterson (Twitter: @BrentPeterson12) enters his first season as color analyst on the Predators' radio broadcasts. After spending his first 13 seasons with the franchise as a member of the team's coaching staff, Peterson has spent the last three seasons working as Hockey Operations Advisor, working closely with General Manager David Poile and the coaching staff in all matters involving the team, in addition to being active in the community and in sponsorship and business operations.

A tireless worker in the community, Peterson established Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's (PFP) in 2007 to raise awareness of the devastating effects of Parkinson's Disease. Since 2011, PFP has joined forces with the Nashville Predators to hold Petey's Preds Party – a fun night of live entertainment, dinner and an extensive silent auction – and the Nashville Predators/Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic at Vanderbilt Legends Club. In its first three years of existence, the combination Party and Golf Classic have raised more than $200,000 which was split between Parkinson's research and the Predators Foundation. Donations to PFP fund critical research to aid in the fight against the disease as well as educational and support groups.

During the 2011-12 season, Peterson brought his battle with Parkinson's into the public eye – including in-depth coverage of his Deep Brain Stimulation Surgery (DBS) – in an effort to create awareness and cultivate donations to Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. Since the DBS, Peterson is happy, healthy and has seen a dramatic reduction of his Parkinson's symptoms.

In his time behind the Predators bench as both associate coach (2003-11) and assistant coach (1998-2003), Peterson worked closely with the penalty killing unit that finished among the top 12 in the NHL in 10-of-12 seasons, and a defensive corps that gave up the second fewest goals in his final season behind the bench (2010-11). He helped the club to Stanley Cup Playoff berths in six of his final seven seasons behind the bench.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winter Hawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winter Hawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Memorial Cup. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alberta, native spent two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former first-round pick of Detroit (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-89 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Brent and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin, Tennessee. They have three children: Ryan, Brad and Kristin, and four grandchildren.

WILLY DAUNIC RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Willy Daunic (Twitter: WillyD1025) begins his first full season as the Predators radio play-by-play announcer on game broadcasts on 102.5 The Game, after taking over play-by-play duties in the fall of 2013. Prior to joining the game broadcasts, Daunic, who has worked on the Predators radio since the team's inception in 1998, has hosted the pregame, intermission and postgame radio shows.

In addition to his work with the Predators, Daunic has been hosting an afternoon sports talk show in Nashville since 1993 and joined the Predators' flagship station, 102.5 The Game when it became an all sports station in 2011. He has co-hosted Fox-17's "The Game," a 30-minute sports magazine show on Sunday nights, since 2007.

Daunic has performed a wide variety of play-by-play and color duties on both radio and television in Nashville, including Vanderbilt University (football, baseball and basketball), Belmont University basketball, Nashville Sounds, TSSAA (Tennessee) State Championship games (football, baseball and basketball) and more.

A 1993 graduate of Vanderbilt University with a Bachelor's Degree in history, Daunic attended Vanderbilt on a basketball scholarship and lettered in both basketball and baseball. He was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 25th round of the 1993 MLB Amateur Draft, and played a pair of seasons in their system before turning his focus to a career in broadcasting.

Daunic lives in Nashville with his wife Erin, his daughter Evans (12) and son Mahoney (9).

BROADCASTERS

MARK HOWARD STUDIO HOST

Mark Howard (Twitter: @MHOWARDZONE) enters his sixth season as a studio analyst for all Predators' home games on FOX Sports Tennessee in 2014-15. Howard works alongside Pete Weber, Stu Grimson and Terry Crisp in providing information to Preds fans during games, assisting with player and coach interviews during pre- and postgame coverage as well as intermissions.

Howard hosts the award-winning Wakeup Zone on WGFX, 104.5 The Zone which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. He also does a radio pre- and postgame show for Titans Radio and has worked as a television host of TSSAA for the State High School football and basketball championships since 2004.

Prior to hosting The Wakeup Zone, Howard was a sports anchor at WTVF-TV (CBS) in Nashville and worked for 103.3 WKDF doing morning sports from 1997-2002. The West Hartford, Connecticut, native who also worked in television in Evansville, Indiana, from 1983-86, has called action for Triple-A baseball in Wichita and Evansville, and college hockey at Cornell. He graduated from Ithaca College in upstate New York in 1980 with a degree in history and political science.

Mark is single and has a 11-year-old son Jack.

TERRY CRISP STUDIO ANALYST

Entering his 17th year with the Predators, Terry Crisp (Twitter: @ZenofTerryCrisp) provides analysis on the Predators during the club's television and pre-/postgame shows and during intermissions of broadcasts. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' website and has worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships. Crisp also hosts his own radio show, Extra Crispy, on the Predators flagship radio station, 102.5 The Game.

For the past 16 seasons, Crisp worked alongside Pete Weber, forming one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the League. A part of the Predators' Emmy-winning broadcasts in 2003, 2008 and 2010, Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He won three Stanley Cup Championships, two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989), and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound, Ontario, native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: he was a player with the inaugural editions of the St. Louis Blues in 1967 and the New York Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Barry Trotz, then with the Nashville Predators, broke the mark in 2003. In the 2004 NHL Stanley Cup Final, the Lightning defeated the Flames – the team he coached to the Cup in 1989. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisp's have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley.

LYNDSAY ROWLEY RINKSIDE REPORTER

Lyndsay Rowley (Twitter: @LyndsayRowley) enters her first season as the Rinkside Reporter for all Predators' home games on FOX Sports Tennessee. Rowley works with the rest of the Predators broadcast crew to bring fans closer to the action through interviews, special features and more.

Prior to joining the Predators broadcast team, Rowley has spent time on the sidelines of many athletic events, ranging from professional baseball, to college football, to the NBA. Most recently, Rowley spent time with the Rockland Boulders, an independent professional baseball team in Pomona, New York, working as a field correspondent for all live television broadcasts. For the past two years, Rowley worked as the in-house television host for all Charlotte Bobcats (now Hornets) home games.

In 2012, Rowley covered the Columbus Blue Jackets for Columbus' NBC affiliate while also covering Ohio State football, basketball and baseball games and the USA Swimming 2012 Grand Prix.

A native of New Albany, Ohio, Rowley received her Bachelor's degree in communications at High Point University in High Point, North Carolina, where she was a four-year member of the Division I varsity volleyball team. Rowley earned her MBA from Ohio Dominican University in Columbus, Ohio.

New to Nashville, Rowley enjoys sports, writing and traveling in her spare time.

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

The Nashville Predators and FOX Sports Tennessee enter their 17th season as partners in 2014-15, seeing FOX Sports Tennessee and sister station SportsSouth broadcast to more than four million cable and satellite households across Tennessee, Kentucky, eastern Arkansas and northern portions of Mississippi and Alabama.

Play-by-play announcer Pete Weber, who is entering his 17th season calling Predators action, is joined this year by Preds alumni Stu Grimson, who moves from rink-side reporter to a new role as color commentator on the Preds TV broadcasts. Terry Crisp, a staple on Predators broadcasts for the last 16 years will join Mark Howard, who is entering his seventh season, as on-air hosts for all Predators home games on FOX Sports Tennessee. New to the team for the 2014-15 season is Lyndsay Rowley, the new rink-side reporter, bringing fans closer to the action through special interviews and features.

Predators LIVE returns following each game telecast on FOX Sports Tennessee, and features highlights, analysis and interviews and new this year, Predators LIVE pregame show will appear before select broadcasts. Predators players and personnel will also be featured in FOX Sports Tennessee original programs such as Predators Snapshot.

The regional sports networks serving the Southeast – FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.9 million cable and satellite television households in seven states across the Southeast and are the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Bobcats, Memphis Grizzlies and the Nashville Predators, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference. SportSouth reaches more than 10 million homes in six Southeastern states and is the television home of the Atlanta Braves and Southern Conference. SportSouth also offers expanded coverage of the University of Georgia, University of South Carolina and University of Tennessee. Combined, the four networks produce more than 800 live local events each year.

PREDATORS RADIO NETWORK

This season, the Predators and their ancillary programming continue to serve as the centerpiece of 102.5 The Game's all-sports format. Radio Play-by-Play announcer Willy Daunic returns for his first full season behind the microphone and will call the action with former Preds Hockey Operations advisor Brent Peterson joining as Color Analyst.

Owned by the Nashville-based Cromwell Group – which also owns 102.9 WBUZ The Buzz and WQZQ 94.9/830 AM The Light – The Game will carry select preseason, all regular-season and all post-season Predators games. This marks the fifth consecutive season that all Predators regular season and playoff contests will be aired on the same station. These games will include a 30 minute pregame show as well as an hour long post-game show.

The Cromwell Group, Inc. is a privately held company with its corporate office in Nashville, Tennessee. The company manages 22 radio stations (6 AM and 20 FM) in five markets (Decatur (4), Effingham (3), Mattoon (3), Vandalia (2), Owensboro/Tell City (7), Nashville (3), and in four states (Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee. WBUZ has been in operation since 1999 as Nashville's premiere rock station, 102.9 The Buzz.

Several regional affiliates complete the broadcast radio network of the Nashville Predators during the hockey season, as games are broadcast throughout the state of Tennessee, as well as parts of Kentucky and Alabama. In all, the Predators radio network covers more than 50,000 sq. miles. These affiliates are as follows:

ARENA INFORMATION & POWERS MANAGEMENT

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Powers Management
Bridgestone Arena • 501 Broadway
(615) 770-2000 • Fax (615) 770-2010

Serving as the home for numerous national and international events, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the Unites States since the doors first opened in 1996, hosting more than 13 million guests during that time. The National Hockey League's Nashville Predators have been the primary tenants of Bridgestone Arena since 1998 and boasts one of the most unique game atmospheres in the NHL. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,113 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena, the Gaylord Entertainment Center and the Sommet Center, the building became Bridgestone Arena in 2010 after Bridgestone Americas Inc., which is headquartered in Nashville, entered into multi-year naming-rights and marketing partnership with the Predators and Powers Management.

Initiated by former Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, Bridgestone Arena uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, U.S.A." Bridgestone Arena was designed as a tribute to Nashville's music roots, with the entrance positioned on the corner of Fifth Avenue and historic Broadway, facing the Ryman Auditorium – the original home of the Grand Ole Opry.

The one million-square-foot facility has also spurred downtown growth in the last eight years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Frist Museum of the Visual Arts, the Schermerhorn Symphony Center, multiple hotels (Hilton, Omni, Hyatt), Encore Condominiums, Pinnacle at Symphony Place office building and the Downtown Public Library. In May 2013, the adjacent Music City Center, Nashville's newest convention facility, opened. Many new restaurants, stores and residential buildings have sprung up during the arena's tenure as well; as of May 2014, the Nashville Downtown Partnership listed 200 restaurants, 127 retail locations and 87 bars/small music venues in the downtown area, with more on the way.

A report issued in 2012 estimated that Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators generate an annual economic impact of approximately $410 million. More than 2,350 jobs are supported annually by the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Nearly two-thirds of attendees at all Bridgestone Arena events come from outside of Davidson County, creating a pure economic impact to Davidson County in dollars spent by out-of-county visitors.

Bridgestone Arena also hosts a variety of non-traditional functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents. Bridgestone Arena tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, an XM Radio studio and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. Bridgestone Arena features The Patrón Platinum Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience located on the building's suite level, which is open before and after games and concerts, and hosts a number of banquets and receptions. The Lexus Lounge, an exclusive club offering unprecedented access to players and other VIPs in an all-inclusive luxury environment, opened at the start of the 2014-15 season.

Continuously upgrading to improve experiences for fans, guests, performers and athletes, Bridgestone Arena has recently undergone renovations that include a new HVAC system, new carpet in several levels and exterior LED boards. In January 2014, the Nissan SoBro Entrance was opened at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Demonbreun, uniting the arena with the Music City Center and the new businesses south of Broadway. Tavern '96 opened outside of the SoBro Entrance, giving fans an additional dining opportunity seven days a week.

The arena also houses more than 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used more than 200 days a year by national touring acts. Metro's Registry of Deeds is also located inside the Bridgestone Arena.

The list of acts that have called Bridgestone Arena home is lengthy and includes the Country Music Association Awards; the Country Music Television Awards; Keith Urban's "We're All For the Hall" benefit concerts; NCAA, SEC and OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four; and entertainers such as Garth Brooks, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, KISS, Metallica, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake and Katy Perry. Bridgestone Arena is set to host 12 consecutive SEC Basketball Championships (SEC Men's tournament: 2015-17, 2019-21, 2023-25, SEC Women's tournament: 2018, 2022, 2026).

COMMUNITY RELATIONS/ PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation strives to meet the educational, social, health and cultural needs of the Nashville community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Through several fundraisers held throughout the year, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $4 million in grants to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-area charities and community service organizations since its creation.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS BRENT PETERSON CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC AND PETEY'S PREDS PARTY

The Nashville Predators Foundation and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's hosted its fourth annual First Tennessee Nashville Predators Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic and Petey's Preds Party presented by Franklin American Mortgage in 2014. The golf tournament took place at Vanderbilt Legends Club on Monday, Sept. 15. The winner of the tournament was awarded the Dr. Mac Cup in honor of the late Dr. James McPherson, who served as the Predators' dentist from 1998-2004. Petey's Preds Party took place the next day, Tuesday, Sept. 16, at Bridgestone Arena with a comedic performance from Keith Alberstadt, dinner and an auction. The 2014 classic raised more than $200,000, and split evenly between the Nashville Predators Foundation and Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. nashvillepredators.com/golf

GNASHVEGAS CASINO NIGHT & AUCTION

The Preds annual gala event took on a Las Vegas casino theme for the fourth year in a row in 2014 as local restaurants provided gourmet food and fans were able to play Vegas table games alongside their favorite Nashville Predators. GnashVegas featured a massive silent auction, gaming tables and a photo station. The Predators annual gala event has raised more than $1 million since its inception in 1998. nashvillepredators.com/gala

NASHVILLE PREDATORS CRAFT BEER FESTIVAL

The Nashville Predators opened the doors of Bridgestone Arena in the heat of summer for the second straight year, welcoming beer lovers inside to sample more than 80 beers from 60 different breweries from all over the United States and Belgium. In addition to receiving unlimited tastings, attendees also received a ticket to an early-season Preds game and a commemorative glass. Nashville's own Black Abbey Brewery was named "Best Brewery" by fan vote and will be poured at select Preds home games in November.

PREDS & PINS

The Nashville Predators Foundation hosted its second annual Preds & Pins Bowling fundraiser at Hillwood Strike & Spare in December 2013. This casual evening featured two hours of bowling, a buffet and photo opportunities with Preds players, coaching staff, Gnash and local celebrities. All proceeds benefited the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt through the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Dollar General. nashvillepredators.com/bowling

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

First held in 2006, the Nashville Predators Foundation Wine Festival & Tasting took place over the ice at Bridgestone Arena once again in 2014. Last season, the Festival raised more than $60,000 and featured samples of more than 225 wines, beers and liquors, many of which came from local Tennessee craftsman. The event also included culinary delicacies from local restaurants, a complimentary Reidel glass and a photo opportunity with the Predators mascot, Gnash. The event also featured a VIP Dinner & Tasting hosted by Justin Vineyards and Winery in the Patrón Platinum Club that included a five-course wine dinner with wine pairings from the Justin Vineyards. nashvillepredators.com/wine

KABOOM!

Twice in 2014 the Nashville Predators teamed up with KaBOOM! – a national nonprofit dedicated to saving play – to build new playgrounds in the Nashville area. This is the third consecutive year that the Preds have partnered with KaBoom!, but the first time that they have been involved in two builds in one year. Volunteers from the Predators, other local organizations and the community worked together to make the builds of the new playgrounds, designed by the children who will use the playground the most, take place in just one day.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER

Every season the Nashville Predators host a Hockey Fights Cancer Night (a league-wide initiative) at two home games. These We Care for Kids nights, benefitting the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Dollar General, include donations collected at all main entrances and silent auctions which include specialty jerseys worn by the players. Patients from Children's Hospital are invited to attend the game, ride on the Zamboni, take part in a postgame meet-and-greet with players and participate in Zebra's Care, a charitable organization run by the NHL Official's Association. The money raised this past season will go to the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Dollar General at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, which was endowed in 2010 and in 2014 was renamed in conjunction with a new endowment given by Preds Captain Shea Weber and goaltender Pekka Rinne.

DEX SCORE & WIN

During the 2013-14 season, every time a Predator scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win, DEX Imaging and Mailing made a donation to the Predators Foundation through the DEX Score and Win program. Last season, the ninth season of the program, raised $29,000 for distribution to 10 Middle Tennessee charities. Since its inception midway through the 2005-06 season, the program has raised more than $249,000.

GAME NIGHT & SILENT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts a silent auction table at each Predators home game behind section 106/107 on the main concourse at select games. Throughout the year, the Foundation sells autographed pucks through the "Mystery Pucks" fundraiser. For a $20 donation, fans have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player with select pucks specialized for buyers to receive an extra prize.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's community relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each season the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. Since inception, $90,000 has been given. Applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee and excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. For more information, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2331 or visit nashvillepredators.com/dilleraward.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION GRANT RECIPIENTS

In May 2014, the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed 117 grants totaling more than $410,500 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations - the largest one-time allocation in team history. Each year, the Predators Foundation board selects four Feature Charities, these organizations receive exclusive opportunities throughout the season including in-arena drives, Predators participation in events, tickets to home games, recognition in team publications as well as other unique opportunities. The 2014-15 Feature Charities are Beads of Courage, Homework Hotline, Interfaith Dental Clinic and Youth Villages.

GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have a 501(c)3 status to apply. To request application information please email Rebecca King at rking@nashvillepredators.com.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season - from ownership and players to management and staff - through our Hearts of Gold initiative. As a staff, the goal is to reach 6,000 volunteer hours per season.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2014-15 initiatives included Second Harvest Food Bank collections, the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive, monthly hospital visits, a Thanksgiving turkey deliveries, a holiday party for kids and Hockey Fights Cancer awareness month.

OTHER INITIATIVES

Throughout the year, the Nashville Predators organize charitable drives to benefit the families of Nashville and Middle Tennessee. Fans are encouraged to bring donations during these games.

365 PEDIATRIC CANCER FUND PRESENTED BY DOLLAR GENERAL

In March 2013, the Nashville Predators Foundation announced the renaming of the Nashville Predators Pediatric Cancer Research Fund at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt to the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund Presented by Dollar General. The new branding of the fund, spearheaded by the generosity of Nashville Predators captain Shea Weber and goaltender Pekka Rinne, will continue to raise money for the Preds annual donation to the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt.

PLAYERS' CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management, staff and Gnash gave more than 6,000 hours of community service during the 2013-14 season. Over the years, players have donated thousands of game tickets and have visited hundreds of non-profit organizations throughout the Middle Tennessee community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives including:

Alive Hospice, American Heart Association, CASA, Inc., Centerstone of Tennessee, Inc., Friends of Tennessee School for the Blind, Girls on the Run, Global Education Center, Nashville Public Library Foundation and T.J. Martell Foundation.

POILE'S CONTRIBUTIONS

Predators General Manager David Poile and his wife Elizabeth donate to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale to our U.S. Troops), USA Hockey and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's for every Predators victory.

MANAGEMENT & STAFF

YOUTH HOCKEY/ FAN DEVELOPMENT

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches' clinics, players' clinics, ice time at Bridgestone Arena and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators' home games.

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's league-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing this free athletic and educational program.

presented locally by UnitedHealthcare

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, pucks, nets and protective goalie equipment, including start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, as well as follow-ups with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently more than 40 youth facilities that participate in the Street Pride program including Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Middle Tennessee, Metro Parks and Recreation and the YMCA of Middle Tennessee. This free grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a kid needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

GET OUT AND LEARN!

Get Out And Learn! (G.O.A.L!) presented by Erie Insurance program introduces the game of hockey to everyone, both young and old, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. Originally designed for kids ages 5-8, in the fall of 2014, G.O.A.L will begin being available to all ages at the new Ford Ice Center. This free, introductory program, designed for those with no prior experience, is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family. The Preds are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in 2006, more than 3,000 kids have graduated from G.O.A.L!

NASHVILLE PREDATORS KIDS CLUB
Presented by Delta Dental

Get your kids in training for the 2014-15 hockey season by signing them up for the Nashville Predators Kids Club, presented by Delta Dental. The Preds Kids Club is filled to the brim with exciting features, events, member benefits, and so much more! Visit the Kids Club table outside sections 108 or 322 during home games or at nashvillepredators.com/kidsclub.

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

"Taking Hockey to the Streets" is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players and routine appearances by players, coaches and Preds mascot Gnash.

HOCKEY RULES

Hockey Rules is a free, traveling, interactive hockey experience that aims to educate elementary and middle school students on basic hockey skills and the Nashville Predators. During the school year, Hockey Rules visits more than 35 schools, reaching more than 5,000 students. The Predators provide all necessary equipment and instruction at no cost. The program continues into the summer as the Hockey Rules Summerfest Tour travels to youth camps, educating young fans on the sport of hockey.

BLUE CROSS BLUESHIELD BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice level offered as a ticket package during Predators home games. Youth hockey players ages 7-17, get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the starting lineup; they skate to the blue line and then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July at Ford Ice Center, which is open to boys and girls ages 8-14. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, intensive dryland conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. Hockey School emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from the Predators scouting and coaching staffs.

The Predators also host the "Little Preds" Hockey School, an evening summertime camp at Ford Ice Center. The school is offered to children ages 5-8.

COACHING SYMPOSIUM

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Annually, the Preds host a free Coaching Symposium featuring Nashville Predators coaching staff. Through their partnership with USA Hockey, the Predators are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge, and in turn, the team's on-ice performance.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at Bridgestone Arena. Since the inaugural tournament, 12 teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Predators Cup.

JERSEY SPONSORSHIP

As an ongoing partnership, the Nashville Predators partner with local ice hockey leagues as their official jersey provider. More than 700 youth hockey players on 48 teams at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville, A-Game in Franklin and Ford Ice Center in Antioch wear the Predators logo. When the sponsorship started during the 2008-09 season, it marked the first time in club history that the Predator logo was worn by area hockey associations, strengthening the relationship between the youth hockey community and the NHL Club.

SKATE AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Since the Predators inaugural season in 1998-99, thousands of youth hockey players have had the opportunity to skate on the same surface as NHL players. As a ticket fundraiser program, "Mites on Ice" is offered to hockey teams ages 9-and-under for the chance to skate in front of 17,000-plus fans during intermissions at select Predator home games.

There are several opportunities throughout the season for adults to skate on Bridgestone Arena ice. "Rise and Grind Morning Hockey" takes place in the early morning hours at Bridgestone Arena and gives adults (ages 18 and over) the opportunity to get a quick workout in before work. All levels are welcome and sessions are open to the first 26 skaters and four goalies. The cost is $15 per session and includes 60-minutes of ice, parking and breakfast. For more information or to reserve a spot, register at www.nashvillepredators.com/riseandgrind.

A new opportunity for the 2014-15 season is Pucks & Pints Happy Hour open hockey. All levels are welcome, but participants must be at least 21 years of age and provide their own equipment. The cost is $15 per session and includes 60-minutes of ice and a complimentary "pint" at Tavern '96 following the ice session. For more information, or to reserve a spot, register at www.nashvillepredators.com/pucksandpints.

NASHVILLE JR. PREDATORS

For the 2014-15 season, the Nashville Predators Youth hockey affiliate Nashville Jr. Predators enter their sixth season offering Tier I/II youth travel hockey to families in the Greater Nashville area. This season, the Jr. Predators program will field 17 teams (4 AAA Tier 1, 7 AA, 6 A) from the following age divisions: Squirt (ages 8-10), Peewee (ages 10-12), Bantam (ages 12-14), and Midget (ages 14-18). Visit nashvillejrpredators.com for more information.

For more information on these programs, please visit nashvillepredators.com/youthhockey, contact the Predators Youth Marketing and Fan Development Department at (615) 770-2372 or follow them on Twitter @PredsYouthHcky.

ADMIRALS COACHING STAFF

DEAN EVASON HEAD COACH

Dean Evason enters his third season as the Milwaukee Admirals' head coach in 2014-15 after leading them to a 39-24-6-7 record (91 points) and their AHL-best 12th consecutive playoff berth in 2013-14. In two seasons behind the Milwaukee bench, he has posted an 80-52-20 record.

Milwaukee clinched its 2014 Calder Cup Playoff berth behind a stretch run than was strikingly similar to its run to the 2013 playoffs. In 2013-14, the Admirals went 16-5-1 in its final 22 games of the season to finish with more than 90 points for the ninth time in 11 seasons despite a youthful roster that contained only six players over the age of 25. In Evason's first season as benchboss in 2012-13, Milwaukee went 15-4-1 in its final 20 games to claim the Western Conference's eighth and final playoff spot by one point despite having nine of the team's top 12 scorers recalled to Nashville or traded during that span.

Evason was named the 20th coach in Milwaukee Admirals history on June 19, 2012 after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Washington Capitals, helping them claim four straight Southeast Division titles, reach the Stanley Cup Playoffs five straight years (2008-12) and win the 2010 President's Trophy. In his time as an assistant in Washington from 2005-12, the Capitals compiled a 294-206-74 record (.577). Evason's responsibilities included face-offs – helping the Caps finish among the NHL's Top 10 five times – the penalty kill – which finished as high as second in the League under his watch (2010-11) – while also being in charge of the team's forwards.

Prior to joining the Capitals, Evason spent six seasons as a head coach in the Western Hockey League. He began his coaching career with the Kamloops Blazers – where his roster included Predators 2002 first-round pick Scottie Upshall – compiling a 109-83-17 record in three seasons from 1999-2002. Evason moved on to guide the Vancouver Giants to back-to-back playoff appearances in 2002-03 and 2003-04, before co-coaching the Calgary Hitmen to a 34-23-9-6 record in 2004-05 on a team that included NHL stars Andrew Ladd and Ryan Getzlaf.

Washington's third selection, 89th overall (third round), in the 1982 Entry Draft, Evason amassed 372 points (139g-233a) and 1,002 penalty minutes in 803 NHL games with the Capitals, Hartford Whalers, San Jose Sharks, Dallas Stars and Calgary Flames from 1983-96. This included a pair of season playing under then-Washington General Manager David Poile (1983-85) and three seasons as a teammate of Predators Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton in both the Hartford (1984-86) and San Jose (1991-92) organizations. He served as a player/coach for Team Canada during the 1996-97 season, captaining the team to a gold medal at the 1997 World Championship. He wound down his career as a player/coach with Landshut of the German League in 1997-98 and 1998-99.

A native of Flin Flon, Manitoba, Evason is an honored member of the Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame. He has three children – Bryce, Brianne and Brooke.

STAN DRULIA ASSISTANT COACH

Stan Drulia enters his third full season as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in 2014-15 where his responsibilities include running the defensive corps, heading up the penalty kill, pre-scouting the opposition and improving the team's face-off efficiency.

Named to the position on Dec. 5, 2011, he has helped the Admirals clinch three of their AHL-best 12 consecutive Calder Cup Playoff berths; they went 9-2-3 down the stretch to secure the Western Conference's fifth seed in 2011-12, went 15-4-1 in their final 20 games of 2012-13 to reach the playoffs by one point despite having to use 12 blueliners, and seeing nine of the team's top 12 scorers recalled or traded away during the campaign, and posted a 16-5-1 mark down the stretch in 2013-14 to hit the 90-point mark for the ninth time in Milwaukee's last 11 seasons despite only six roster members over the age of 25.

Prior to joining Milwaukee, Drulia served as head coach for the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers, compiling a 49-35-5 record. During his last full season with the Nailers in 2010-11, the Fort Erie, Ontario, native led the club to a 38-29-5 record and a spot in the Eastern Conference Final. Eighteen players from the squad saw promotions to the American Hockey League during the course of the season.

Drulia spent four seasons in Port Huron from 2006-10, one with the United Hockey League's Flags, and three with the International Hockey League's Icehawks. In his three seasons at the IHL level, Drulia amassed a 132-75-21 record. In 2007-08, he guided the Icehawks to a 41-29-6 record, then to the Turner Cup Final where they fell in a Game Seven overtime. In 2008-09, Drulia led Port Huron to a 44-21-11 mark and was named IHL Coach of the Year.

Prior to one season as an assistant with the Toledo Storm (ECHL) in 2005-06, Drulia served as head coach of the ECHL's Augusta Lynx (2003-05), and in his only year as the head coach of the Orlando Seals of the Atlantic Coast Hockey League in 2002-03, he guided the club to the league title, earning ACHL Coach of the Year honors.

Pittsburgh's 11th selection, 214th overall (11th round), in the 1986 Entry Draft, Drulia played 13 professional seasons from 1989-2001, including 126 NHL games with the Tampa Bay Lightning (15g-27a-42pts). He won two Turner Cups as IHL champions in 1994 with the Atlanta Knights and in 1997 with the Detroit Vipers, and was the recipient of the N.R. "Bud" Poile Award – named after Predators GM David Poile's father – as IHL Playoff MVP on two occasions (1994 and 1999). Drulia posted three 100-plus point seasons - he won the scoring title and was ECHL MVP with the Knoxville Cherokees in 1990-91 (63g-77a-140pts), ranked second in goals and third in points with both the AHL's New Haven Nighthawks in 1991-92 (49g-53a-102pts), and the Knights in 1993-94 (54g-60a-114pts). In total, he accumulated 823 points (366g-457a) in 671 minor league games.

Before turning pro, Drulia amassed 479 points (198g-281a) in 296 Ontario Hockey League games with Belleville, Hamilton and Niagara Falls from 1984-89 – a league point record that still stands today.

Stan and his wife Shar have a daughter, Shawn, and a son, Trevor.

2013-14: Began the season with Nashville, and scored his first NHL goal in his first game of the season on Oct. 8, 2013 vs. Minnesota... Posted five points (1g-4a) in his first 11 NHL games of the season before being assigned to Milwaukee (AHL) for all but two one-game stints (Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh and March 23 at Chicago)... Ranked fifth on the Admirals in goals (15) and tied for sixth in points (34)... Tied for the Milwaukee team lead in power-play goals (7), and was second in points-per game (.72)... Participated in his third straight World Junior Championship in 2014, and captained the Swedish squad for the second consecutive year, helping it reach overtime of the Gold Medal Game and earn a silver medal to complete his world junior career as a three-time medalist (one gold, two silvers)... Became the first Swede to win MVP honors at the WJC since the award began in 2004. Also named Best Forward of the tournament by the Directorate and to the Media All-Star Team... Ranked second at the 2014 World Junior Championship in points (4g-8a-12pts), second in assists and tied for fourth goals.

2012-13: Joined Nashville following the completion of his Swedish league season, making his NHL debut on April 14, 2013 vs. Detroit to become the third-youngest player (18 years, 244 days) to don a Predators uniform. Recorded his first career NHL point/assist on April 23, 2013 vs. Calgary... The recipient of the 2013 Golden Cage Award as the Allsvenskan's (Sweden-2) top junior player after posting 33 points (15g-18a) in 38 games for Leksand... Led all Allsvenskan junior players in goals and ranked second to fellow Predators prospect Pontus Aberg in points... Ranked second in goals and tied for eighth in points (5g-4a-9pts, 9gp) during 2013 qualification play to help Leksand earn promotion to the SHL in 2013-14... Captained Sweden to a silver medal at the 2013 World Junior Championship... Named to the 2013 World Junior Championship All-Star Team by the media and one of Sweden's three best players of the tournament by the coaches after posting five points (3g-2a) in six games.

AMATEUR: Amassed the most points (8g-9a-17pts) by an under-18 junior player in the Allsvenskan with Leksand in 2011-12... Helped Sweden claim gold at the 2012 World Junior Championship... Captained Sweden to a silver medal at the Under-18 World Championship... Named the best forward of the 2012 Under-18 Worlds by the directorate after tying for second among all tournament skaters in goals (5)... Paced the 2010-11 Leksand junior squad in points (21g-19a-40pts), and tied for sixth in league goal scoring... Earned a silver medal with Sweden at the 2011 Under-18 World Championship, tying for sixth in the tournament in goals (4) and ranking third on the team in points (6) as its youngest member... Joined Leksand's junior club after the completion of his under-18 team's season in 2009-10, helping it win the league title.

BACKGROUND: Favorites include Anchorman (movie), Virago (Nashville restaurant), Olsnäs, Sweden and Miami (vacation spots)... Would like to play a hockey game at Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, home of Real Madrid, and trade places with Lebron James for a day... If he could have one super power, it would be to fly, but his worst fear is heights... Would choose Ben Stiller to play him in a movie... Considers ice cream to be his guilty pleasure... If he could make a rule change, it would be to reduce goalie pad size, and increase net size... His hidden talent is being good at Monopoly.

TRANSACTIONS: April 3, 2013 – Acquired from Washington for forwards Martin Erat and Michael Latta on April 3, 2013... June 22, 2012 – Washington's first selection, 11th overall (first round), in the 2012 Entry Draft.

2013-14: Led the Predators in goals (24), and ranked third on the team in points (52), setting career highs in both categories and becoming the sixth Preds draftee to hit the 50-point mark for the club... Set a career high in assists (28), becoming the eighth Nashville draft pick to score 20 goals and amass 20 assists in a season for the team... Set career highs and tied for second on the team in both power-play goals (7) and game-winning goals (4)... Led the team in plus/minus rating (+16), the highest mark by a Predators forward since 2009-10 (Hornqvist, +18)... Set a career high and ranked second on the team in shots (215), in addition to playing a personal-best 16:23 per game... One of just four NHLers to post more than 50 points, and one of three NHLers to post more than 22 goals, in less that 16:30 of ice time per game... Recorded five two-goal efforts, putting him in a six-way tie for third-most multiple-goal efforts in a season in franchise history... Posted his first career four-point game (2g-2a) in the team's regular-season finale on April 13 at Minnesota. The final point, a power-play goal, was the 100th of his career... Named one of the United States' best players at the 2014 World Championship, the third time in four years he's gained the honor... Ranked fourth on Team USA in points (3g-5a-8pts) and tied for third in goals at Worlds... Has 30 points (10g-20a) in 29 career World Championship games since 2011.

2012-13: Tied for third on the team in power-play points (2g-5a-7pts)... Tied for second in the NHL in shootout goals (5), and posted the League's fifth-best success rate among shooters taking at least four attempts (five-for-seven, 71.4 percent)... Appeared in his 100th career NHL game on March 15 at Calgary... Helped the United States claim its first medal at the World Championship in nine years (bronze) in 2013... Named one of Team USA's three best players of the tournament after leading all skaters in assists, and ranking third in points (4g-10a-14pts)... Tied for 10th in goals and penalty minutes (18) at the World Championship.

2011-12: Tied for seventh among all NHL rookies in goals (14) and assists (22), and ranked eighth in points (36). The point and assist totals were both the second highest by a rookie in franchise history... Tied for second among first-year NHLers in power-play goals (6), and ranked third in shots on goal (172)... Ranked third among rookies, and set a franchise rookie record, in power-play points (6g-7a-13pts)... Set franchise records for road goals, assists and points by a rookie (10g-15a-25pts), ranking second on the team and fourth among rookies... Posted 14 points (7g-7a) in his first 15 NHL games... Participated in the rookie portion of the 2012 All-Star Weekend... Joined Team USA at the 2012 World Championship, posting a pair of assists while playing in the club's final four contests. PLAYOFFS: Made his NHL Playoff debut in Game Five of the WCQ vs. Detroit... Recorded his first postseason point/assist in Game One of the WCS vs. Phoenix.

AMATEUR: Served as an alternate captain and played all 41 games for the Wisconsin Badgers (WCHA) during his sophomore season in 2010-11... Ranked ninth in the WCHA in goals (19), tied for 11th in conference scoring (19g-24a-43pts) in 2010-11... Tied for fourth in the WCHA in game-winning goals (5), tied for sixth in power-play points (8g-15a-23pts) and eighth in man-advantage goals in 2010-11... Named one of Team USA's three best players at the 2011 World Championship after leading the team in goals (3) and ranking second in points (6) in seven tournament games... One of only two collegiate underclassmen on the United States' 2011 World Championship entry... Named to the 2010 WCHA All-Rookie Team after finishing the season ninth in NCAA freshman scoring (8g-25a-33pts)... Helped the Badgers advance to the 2010 NCAA National Championship Game, posting three points (1g-2a) in four NCAA Tournament games... A 2009 USHL First-Team All-Star... Waterloo Black Hawks captain and team MVP in 2008-09... Ranked second in the United States Hockey League in assists (48), tied for second in points (76), and tied for eighth in goals (28) in 2008-09... His father, Jan, played briefly in the lower Swiss leagues and is a long-time junior coach in Switzerland... Speaks five languages: German, English, French, Czech and Swedish... On Twitter @KevinFiala22.

SCOUTING REPORT: A dynamic forward whose creativity and competitiveness are off the charts... The type of player who wants the puck on his stick in important situations and isn't afraid to go to the hard areas to get it... Once he has the puck, he's a magician – an elite playmaker and stickhandler who can make plays at full speed – finds passing lanes and gets the puck away cleanly and quickly.

QUOTEBOOK: "Going into the Draft, he's the player that we thought we had a chance to get to and he's a player that we were targeting. He's a high end offensive player with great skills and he's very creative with the puck. He can score, set-up and he's extremely competitive. He has all the ingredients to thrive as a dynamic offensive player for us down the road." - Predators Chief Amateur Scout Jeff Kealty.

Shoots left. • 6-3, 182 lbs.
Born, Orsk, Russia, August 12, 1996.
(Nashville's second choice, 42nd overall (second round), in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Selected second overall by the Quebec Remparts (QMJHL) in the 2014 Canadian Hockey League Import Draft, but is expected to spend the 2014-15 season with Magnitogorsk (KHL)... Split the majority of the 2013-14 season between Stalnye Lisy Magnitogorsk of the Russian junior league and the eventual 2014 Gagarin Cup Champions Metallurg Magnitogorsk of the KHL, where he played for former NHL head coach Mike Keenan. Also played three games for Orsk of Russia's second division... Captained Russia at the 2014 Under-18 World Championship, tying for sixth in tournament assists, and for seventh in points (2g-5a-7pts)... Ranked third in assists (6), and tied for fourth in points (7) at the 2013 World Junior A Challenge, helping Russia to a silver medal... Suited up for all four of Russia's games at the 2013 Ivan Hlinka Tournament... The 13th-ranked International Skater in Central Scouting's Final 2014 Rankings... Helped Russia to a silver medal at the 2012 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge, recording one assist in six games... Ranked 10th among 16 year olds in the Russian junior league in points (9g-6a-15pts) with Stalnye Lisy Magnitogorsk in 2012-13.

SCOUTING REPORT: A big-bodied forward who is very strong on the puck... Shows smooth skating ability and is able to hold off defenders using his size and reach... Has natural top-end offensive skills and shows great instincts and anticipation – is always in the right position to make something happen... Deceptive stick skills.

QUOTEBOOK: "Vladislav is a good, big, powerful forward who has very good skills. He is very good in tight situations where he uses his body and his long reach to hold off opponents. He's got a very good shot and he's an offensive threat every time he's on the ice." - Predators European Scout Martin Bakula.

DEFENSE

JACK DOUGHERTY

(JAK DAWR-ih-tee)

Shoots right. • 6-1, 186 lbs.
Born, St. Paul, Minn., May 25, 1996.
(Nashville's third choice, 51st overall (second round), in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Expected to play his freshman season at the University of Wisconsin (Big 10) in 2014-15... Played his lone season with the U.S. National Team Development Program in 2013-14, ranking second among team blueliners in goals (6), and fourth in points (22)... Shared the team lead among defensemen in plus/minus ranking during the 2013-14 season (+33), and ranked second among team blueliners and third on the NTDP squad in the category (+20) during the USHL portion of their schedule... Helped the United States with their fifth gold medal in a six-year span at the Under-18 World Championship in 2014, tying for third among tournament defensemen in goals (2) – including one in the Gold Medal Game – and for sixth in points (4)... Helped Team USA to a silver medal at the 2013 Ivan Hlinka Tournament, tying for second on the team, and for fourth among tournament defensemen, in points (1g-2a-3pts)... Scored the opening goal of the 2013 USA Hockey All-American Top Prospects Game, helping Team Johnson to a 5-2 win... Ranked No. 30 among North American Skaters in Central Scouting's Final 2014 Rankings... Played two seasons of Minnesota High School hockey with St. Thomas Academy in 2012-13 and 2013-14... Helped the Cadets captured their third consecutive Class A state title in 2013, recording six assists in three state tournament games, and ranked third on the team in assists (21) in his final season with the club... A teammate of Predators prospects Teemu Kivihalme on Team Southeast of the Upper Midwest High School Elite League where he led all blueliners in points (2g-9a-11pts)... On Twitter @jackdougherty2.

SCOUTING REPORT: Not flashy, but an all-around player with high hockey IQ who always seems to make the right play... Displays excellent defensive awareness – never gets beaten to the net... Plays a two-way game with physicality and skill... A very agile skater who can make things happen on the rush and on the power play... Shows an aggressive edge and always finishes his checks.

QUOTEBOOK: "Jack is a good-sized good-skating defenseman. He makes a good first pass to get out of his own end and he'll jump into the play and carry the puck up ice if need be. He's also hard to play against in his own zone and has a good stick, and he's got some fight to his game. We think he's going to be a good player." - Predators North American Amateur Scout David Westby.

Born, Camrose, Alta., August 2, 1996.
(Nashville's fourth choice, 62nd overall (third round),
in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Ranked eighth among Western Hockey League rookies in points (17g-31a-48pts), tied for eighth in goals, and tied for ninth in assists in 2013-14, helping the Kelowna Rockets to a league-best 57-11-4 record... Tied for the lead among 2013-14 WHL rookies in game-winning goals... The only WHL rookie with multiple power-play (5) and shorthanded goals (2) in 2013-14... Ranked seventh among league rookies in plus/minus rating (+23) in 2013-14... Amassed 33 points (12g-21a) in his final 38 games of 2013-14 after posting 15 points (5g-10a) in his first 30 games... Tied for the lead among WHL rookies in 2014 playoff goals (5) and power-play goals (3), while ranking third among first-year players in points (10)... Ranked 67th on Central Scouting's Final 2014 Rankings after being No. 74 at the midterm... Spent the majority of the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons with the Notre Dame Argos Midget AAA squad...Tied for ninth in the Saskatchewan Midget Hockey League in goals (25), ranked 15th in points (49) and led the Argos in both categories in 2012-13... Skated for the Camrose Kodiaks Bantam AAA team from 2009-11... Paced the Kodiaks in points (18g-22a-40pts) during the 2010-11 season... On Twitter @Kirkland96.

SCOUTING REPORT: A late bloomer who has been getting better at an accelerated pace... Shows good offensive instinct and plays a step ahead of his defenders... Incredibly soft hands for a player with his size... Has an impressively quick and accurate release on his shot and can get it off in tight areas... Will need to add bulk and continue working on lower-body strength to improve his skating speed.

QUOTEBOOK: "Justin is a big power forward who is kind of a late bloomer. He had a slow start to his WHL career in Kelowna after playing AA hockey in Alberta a season ago, but came on strong during the second-half. We think we've got ourselves a very skilled goal-scoring-type forward who is working hard to add a physical element to his game." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Glen Sanders.

LEFT WING

VIKTOR ARVIDSSON

(VIHK-TUHR AHR-VIHD-SUHN)

Shoots right. • 5-10, 173 lbs.
Born, Kusmark, Sweden, April 8, 1993.
(Nashville's fifth choice, 112th overall (fourth round), in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Signed a three-year entry-level contract on July 15, 2014 and is expected to play his first season in North America in 2014-15... Ranked ninth in the Swedish Hockey League in points (16g-24a-40pts) during the 2013-14 with Skelleftea... Tied for third in SHL shorthanded goals (3), and tied for eighth in both in game-winning goals (5) and power-play assists (12) in 2013-14... Helped Skelleftea win its second consecutive Le Mat Trophy as SHL champions in 2014, tying for second in postseason assists (12) and ranking third in postseason points (16)... Also tied for eighth in 2014 playoff goals (4) and for fourth in power-play points (2g-5a-7pts)... Unranked by Central Scouting in his fourth time through the draft in 2014 after being ranked No. 19 among European skaters in 2013, unranked in 2012 and No. 20 in 2011... Named 2012 Swedish junior player of the year and a finalist for the 2012 SHL rookie of the year award... Ranked fourth among junior players in the Swedish Elite League in goals (7), and fifth in points (12) during the 2012-13 season... Tied for fourth in goals (6) during the 2013 playoffs, helping Skelleftea claim the SHL title after losing in the finals the previous two seasons... Tied for eighth in goals (4) at the 2013 World Junior Championship, helping Sweden to a silver medal alongside fellow Predators prospect Filip Forsberg... Tied for third in Swedish junior league goals (25) with Skelleftea's junior squad in 2011-12... Tied for sixth in goals (3) and for ninth in points (6) during the 2011 Swedish junior league playoffs, helping Skelleftea reach the league final and earn a silver medal... Joined Skelleftea's under-18 team for seven 2011 playoff games, ranking fifth among all skaters in points (4g-6a-10pts)... Earned a silver medal at the 2011 Under-18 World Championship, recording one assist in five games... Tied with 2011 No. 1 overall pick Ryan Nugent-Hopkins for the 2010 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament lead in goals (5) while ranking second to him in points (6), helping Sweden to a bronze medal... Ranked second in goals (32), third in points (62) and sixth in assists (30) during with Skelleftea's under-18 team during 2009 Elit play which runs from September-December, then ranked second in goals (20), points (38) and assists (tie, 18) during 2010 Allsvenskan play, which is from January-March... Helped Sweden to a bronze medal playing with Predators prospects Pontus Aberg and Max Gortz at the 2009 Under-17 World Hockey Challenge... Earned a silver medal at the under-18 level with Skelleftea in 2008-09.

SCOUTING REPORT: A smaller player, but frustratingly difficult for the opposition to contain as he always keeps his feet moving... Plays with speed, skill and unmatched tenacity and confidence... Loves to battle to get to the scoring areas... Has a shoot first mentality and has been rewarded for it on the scoresheet... Will be a fan favorite for his shootout prowess.

QUOTEBOOK: "Viktor is as tenacious as they come. He's a smaller guy that has proven over the last couple years that he can play against bigger bodies, so his size isn't going to be a concern. He's an energetic offensive player who is able to release his shot from anywhere in the offensive zone, and he goes into the hard areas. This past season, he's significantly improved his stamina and has added penalty killing to his repertoire." - Predators European Scout Lucas Bergman.

JOONAS LYYTINEN

(YOH-nuhs LEE'YOO-tih-nehn)

Shoots left. • 6-1, 149 lbs.
Born, Espoo, Finland, April 4, 1995.
(Nashville's sixth choice, 132nd overall (fifth round), in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Expected to play the 2014-15 season with KalPa of the Finnish Elite League (SM-Liiga) after splitting the 2013-14 campaign between KalPa's junior and elite league teams... Ranked second among blueliners in the Finnish junior league in points per game (1.00) during the 2013-14 season... Ranked third among junior defensemen in the SM-Liiga in points (3g-6a-9pts) during the 2013-14 season... Ranked 94th among international skaters on Central Scouting's Final Ratings of 2014 after going unranked and undrafted in 2013... Ranked third in assists among KalPa junior team blueliners in 2012-13 (13)... Suited up for all five of Finland's games at the 2012 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament... Spent the majority of the 2011-12 season with KalPa's under-18 team, and the 2010-11 season with its under-16 team.

SCOUTING REPORT: A puck-moving defenseman with nimble hands and good hockey sense... Makes the right plays under pressure... Quick skater who does well in his defensive zone outmaneuvering and escaping forecheckers... Offensive skills and mindset serve him well in finding open lanes on the power play... Shows confidence in jumping into the play and making high-reward passes to his teammates.

QUOTEBOOK: "Joonas was a great junior player and spent the last half of the 2013-14 season with the men's team in KalPa and played the exactly same way he played in juniors. He made a splash right away and is really good with the puck. He can pass, he can skate with the puck and his transition game is awesome. In a lot of ways he reminds me of Roman Josi – he's a very intelligent player with the puck and an active and competitive defender. He's got the mindset we're looking for we just need to bring his body up to an NHL level." - Predators European Scout Janne Kekalainen.

AARON IRVING

(AIR-uhn UHR-vihng)

Shoots right. • 6-1, 198 lbs.
Born, Edmonton, Alta., March 6, 1996.
(Nashville's seventh choice, 162nd overall (sixth round), in the 2014 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Spent his first full season with the Western Hockey League's Edmonton Oil Kings, helping them win the 2014 Memorial Cup and WHL title... Ranked fourth among WHL rookie defensemen in goals (9), and sixth in points (30) during the 2013-14 regular season... Ranked fourth among all rookie WHLers in plus/minus rating (+26) in 2013-14... Played in all 21 of Edmonton's 2014 WHL Playoff contests and all five Memorial Cup games... Central Scouting's 90th-ranked North American skater in its final ranking of 2014 after being ranked 119th at the midterm... Spent the 2012-13 season with the Bonnyville Pontiacs of the Alberta Junior Hockey League, while also being called up to Edmonton (WHL) for five games... Played in Edmonton's South Side Athletic Club organization at the Bantam AA, AAA and Minor Midget AAA and Midget AAA levels from 2009-12... On Twitter @airving96.

SCOUTING REPORT: A steady defender who manages his zone with patience and intelligence... Reads the play well and is excellent at using his positioning to close gaps and lanes, and to box out opposing forwards... Not dynamic offensively, but is willing to jump into the play and contributes on the power play... Makes safe, smart plays under pressure.

QUOTEBOOK: "Aaron is an all-around solid defenseman that can move the puck effectively but will also take the puck up ice himself. His best attribute is his skating and he has great vision. He makes a nice, hard first pass, is a really intelligent player and has sneaky toughness. He comes from a great program in Edmonton and will log a lot of ice time with the Oil Kings this upcoming season." - Predators North American Amateur Scout Glen Sanders.

NORRIS CALIBER CAPTAIN

Predators Captain Shea Weber put up career numbers in 2013-14, setting a career high and breaking the franchise record for points by a defenseman (23g-33a-56pts). Weber closed out the season with 10 points (5g-5a) in Nashville's last nine games, helping the team to an 7-1-1 record in that span.

- In 42 games played in the 2014 calendar year, he recorded 34 points (14g-20a), three game-winning goals and a +11 rating.
- He led all blueliners in goals (23), tying a career high and the franchise record he set in 2008-09.
- Tied for third among NHL defensemen and set a franchise record in points (23g-33a-56pts).
- In 2013-14, he was the first player since the NHL started keeping the hits and blocked shots categories annually in 2005-06, to post 20 goals, 150 blocked shots and 150 hits.
- Led the team and ranked 10th in the League in blocked shots (173).
- First on the Predators and ranked among the Top 25 defensemen in hits (169).
- One of just two defensemen to lead their team in scoring each of the last two seasons.
- His team-leading 26 power-play points (12g-14a) were tied for fourth among League defensemen. Weber's 12 power-play goals were first among defensemen and tied for sixth among all League skaters.
- The Preds went 17-1-2 when he scored.
- Ranked fourth in the League, and led the team, in average ice time (26:54).
- Played in his 600th career NHL game on March 28 in Dallas. Finished the season having played 607 games, making him the third player in franchise history to play more than 600 games in a Preds sweater.

GOALTENDING DUO ENDS SEASON ON HIGH NOTES

Predators goaltender Pekka Rinne went 3-0-1 in his last four starts and posted two shutouts in his last seven starts of the 2013-14 season. With 10 wins on the season, Rinne, who missed 51 games due to a hip injury, set the franchise record for career goaltender wins (163). In addition to taking hold of the franchise wins mark, Rinne's two shutouts (Nos. 31 and 32 for his career) put him in sole possession of second in the League in the category since the start of the 2008-09 season.

On the season, with a healthy Rinne, the Preds posted a 17-11-3 record with a plus-four goal differential.

The two-time Vezina Trophy finalist has recorded all but one of his career victories since 2008-09, including a League-leading 43 in 2011-12. Since his rookie campaign, Rinne ranks among the NHL leaders in wins, save percentage (.918), goals-against average (2.39) and shutouts (32).

Carter Hutton, who entered the 2013-14 season with only one game of NHL experience, posted his 20th win of the year in the Predators final game of the season against Minnesota, finishing on a five-game winning streak to post a 20-11-4 record. Hutton posted the first shutout of his NHL career on April 5 against the Sharks (35 saves) and went 6-0-1 when making 35 or more saves.

NHL MARKS

The Predators went the entire 2013-14 season without allowing a shorthanded goal. In the NHL's expansion era (1967-68 to date) the only other NHL team to play a full season (i.e., excluding two lockout-shortened seasons with 48-game schedules) without allowing a shorthanded goal was the Montreal Canadiens in 1975-76. The Preds last allowed a shorthanded goal on March 21, 2013 against Calgary, a span of 100 games.

FOUR HIT 20-GOAL MARK

The Predators had four 20-goal scorers (Weber, Hornqvist, Fisher, Smith) for the first time since 2007-08.

Craig Smith ended the season on a high note, tallying his first career four-point game (2g-2a) in the Preds' regular-season finale on April 13 at Minnesota. His fourth point of the game, a power-play goal at 15:41 of the third period, was his 100th career point. The third-year forward posted six points (3g-3a) in his final two games of the season to hit 52 points (24g-28a), a career high and good for third on the team. Smith's two goals at Minnesota gave him 24 for the season, best on the team and a career high. His 24 goals included seven power-play markers and four game-winning goals, putting him second in team scoring in both categories.

Shea Weber found the back of the net 23 times in 2013-14, good for the lead among all NHL blueliners and second on the team behind Smith. The Sicamous, B.C., native's 23 goals tied a career high and a franchise record by a defenseman that he set in 2008-09.

Patric Hornqvist hit the 20-goal mark for the fourth consecutive full season. His six game-winning goals put him atop the team in the category and moved him into a tie for 17th in the NHL in game-winning goals since the start of the 2009-10 season (23). In his last 11 games of the season, Hornqvist posted 18 points (9g-9a). On the season, his 53 points and 31 assists both established career highs. An alternate captain for the first time in 2013-14, Hornqvist became the sixth Preds draftee to post 200 career points and the first to score 20-plus goals in four consecutive full seasons (2009-14).

Mike Fisher recorded 13 points (3g-10a) in his final 12 games of the season to post a career high in helpers (29) in addition to his sixth 20-goal season. In 2013-14, Fisher had two multi-goal performances (Dec. 28 vs. Los Angeles and April 4 at Anaheim) and a team-leading home ice point total (11g-20a-31pts). One of the Preds two alternate captains, Fisher finished the season tied for second on the team with four game-winning goals and led all Preds forwards in ice time (19:45) – nearly three minutes higher than the next closest forward (Hornqvist, 16:51) – tying a career high.

STRONG ENDING

From March 21 to the end of the 2013-14 season, the Predators posted a 9-1-2 record, the best of any team during that time span. In their last 12 games, the Predators scored 51 goals (average of 4.25 goals per game), the second time in franchise history that the Preds have scored at a clip of more than 4.25 goals per game over a 12-game span (from Dec 30, 2006-Jan. 30, 2007, 14 games played, 60 goals, 4.29 goals per game).

POSITIVE PROSPECTS

The Nashville Predators have several players in their system who are quickly becoming ready to play regularly on the NHL level. Both Filip Forsberg and Colton Sissons had opportunities during the 2013-14 season to play in a handful of NHL games and are continuing to improve while with the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals. In addition to Austin Watson, Taylor Beck and Miikka Salomaki who are also in Milwaukee, the Preds have Pontus Aberg (Sweden), Jimmy Vesey (Harvard), Zach Stepan (Minnesota State-Mankato) and Brendan Leipsic (Portland, WHL) all getting closer to contributing at the NHL level.

SWISS SENSATION

Roman Josi had a career year for the Preds, setting highs in goals, assists and points (13g-27a-40pts) this season. His 13 goals were good for a tie for ninth among all League defensemen. The Bern, Switzerland native recorded 10 points (4g-6a) in his last 12 games and 26 points (9g-17a) in his last 35 games en route to his first career 40-point campaign and a tie for 23rd in scoring among League defensemen.

Competing in his third NHL season, Josi was second on the team – and fifth in the League – in average time on ice (26:25) and was one of just two NHL defensemen to record three shootout tallies during the season.

TEAM QUICK HITS

- Nashville competed with some of the best in the NHL in 2013-14, going 4-1-0 vs. the defending Stanley Cup champion Chicago Blackhawks, 3-0-0 vs. the San Jose Sharks and 2-0-1 vs. the Los Angeles Kings.
- The Predators recorded 2,382 shots in 2013-14, third most in franchise history. The 2013-14 average of 29 shots per game is a three-shot improvement on their 2012-13 shots per game average (25.9).
- The Preds had a .855 win percentage when leading heading into the first intermission, posting a record of 23-1-2, good for second in the League.
- With a 19-15-7 record on the road, the Preds finished above .500 away from Bridgestone Arena, a marked improvement on the 5-14-5 road record from the 2012-13 season. The Preds 15 regulation road losses tied for fewest road losses by the team in a full-season in franchise history.
- Nashville had the youngest defensive corps in the League (24.02 years) in 2013-14. Only two other teams in the NHL had an average defensive age under 26 (including players on IR): Ottawa (25.32 years) and Washington (25.35 years). Despite their youth, Nashville's defensive corps was the highest scoring in the League, tallying 52 goals on the season.
- Nashville led the League in team face-off win percentage (53.1 percent). The Preds were 50 percent or better in the face-off circle in 63 of their 82 games.
- For a span of eight games between Nov. 16 and Nov. 30, the Preds did not allow a power-play goal, killing off 20 straight penalties in the process. The eight games were one shy of the franchise record of nine (Nov. 18-Dec. 4, 2010).
- The Preds power play improved to 12th in the NHL in 2013-14 at 19.2 percent.

OTHER CAREER MILESTONES

- Patric Hornqvist played in his 300th career game on Nov. 2 at Los Angeles.
- Gabriel Bourque played in his 100th career game on Nov. 28 vs. Edmonton.
- Paul Gaustad registered his 200th career point with a goal on Jan. 9 vs. Anaheim.
- Michael Del Zotto played in his 300th career game on Feb. 8 vs. Anaheim.
- Rich Clune played in his 100th career game on March 1 vs. Winnipeg.
- Ryan Ellis played in his 100th career NHL game on March 6 vs. St. Louis.
- Eric Nystrom tallied his 100th career point with a goal on March 10 at Ottawa.
- Viktor Stalberg played in his 300th career game on March 15 against St. Louis.
- Matt Cullen recorded the 600th point of his NHL career on April 12 vs. Chicago.

ROOKIES FIND THE SCORESHEET

Seven players scored their first career NHL goals for the Preds in 2013-14.

- Filip Forsberg, Oct. 8 vs. Minnesota
- Seth Jones, Oct. 12 vs. New York Islanders (made NHL debut on Oct. 3 at St. Louis)
- Mattias Ekholm, Jan. 7 vs. San Jose
- Simon Moser, March 1 vs. Winnipeg (made NHL debut on Feb. 1 at St. Louis)
- Victor Bartley, March 21 at Calgary
- Colton Sissons, March 27 vs. Buffalo (made NHL debut on Jan. 28 at Winnipeg)
- Calle Jarnkrok, March 27 vs. Buffalo (made NHL debut on March 21 at Calgary)

Also making their NHL debuts for Nashville this season were forward Mark Van Guilder and goaltenders Marek Mazanec and Magnus Hellberg. Van Guilder, a five-time Milwaukee Admirals AHL Man of the Year nominee, played 387 career minor league games before playing his first NHL game on March 30 vs. Washington at age 30. Mazanec made his debut on Nov. 8 at Winnipeg and recorded his first victory on Nov. 16 vs. Chicago, while Hellberg's first NHL action came Oct. 26 vs. St. Louis.

PLAYER QUICK HITS

- Colin Wilson notched a career-high 22 helpers while leading the Preds in games played (81).
- One of two Nashville forwards to average more than a minute in shorthanded and power-play ice time per game, Nick Spaling set career highs in points, goals and assists (13g-19a-32pts) during the season. The Preds were 10-2-1 when Spaling scored during the 2013-14 season, and are 31-6-2 when he scores a goal and 47-14-5 when he records a point all-time.
- In addition to leading team forwards with 154 hits, Eric Nystrom tied a career high in points (21) and finished the season with the second-highest goal total of his career (15). On Jan. 24 at Calgary, Nystrom posted his first career hat trick with a four-goal performance, making him the first player in club history to tally four goals in a game.
- Ryan Ellis led all Nashville defensemen in plus/minus at +9, while also establishing career highs in goals (6), assists (21) and points (27) on the season.
- In his third NHL season, Gabriel Bourque tallied a career high in points and assists (9g-17a-26pts). Bourque closed out the season with seven points (3g-4a) in his last 11 games and eight points (4g-4a) in his last 13, including his first multi-goal game (2g) on April 8 in Dallas.
- Rookie defenseman Seth Jones finished the season with 25 points (6g-19a) and averaged 19:37 in ice time. Jones ranked in the Top 10 among rookie defensemen in goals, assists, points, power-play goals (2), power-play points (9) and games played (77). Jones' 19 assists were third most by a Preds rookie in franchise history.
- Paul Gaustad, Nashville's nominee for the 2014 Masterton Trophy, ranked fourth in the NHL in face-off winning percentage in 2013-14 (58.0 percent), the fifth consecutive season he finished in the Top 10.
- Rookie Calle Jarnkrok posted points (1g-4a) in each of his first five NHL games. He ended the season with his first career multi-point performance (1g-2a at Minnesota), bringing his season totals to nine points (2g-7a) and a +7 rating in 12 games. Nashville went 9-1-2 after Jarnkrok joined the roster and 12-6-2 following his acquisition (along with Patrick Eaves and a second-round pick in the 2014 Entry Draft) for David Legwand.
- Rich Clune ended the season with 166 penalty minutes – the fourth highest total in the NHL – and finished second in the League in major penalties with 16. Clune's 166 penalty minutes were the most by a Predators player since both Patrick Cote and Denny Lambert had more than 200 minutes during the 1998-99 season.

December 1, 2007: David Legwand notched three points (1g-2a) in the third period of a 5-4 shootout win at Montreal. His first point (a goal) was the 302nd of his NHL career, moving him past Kimmo Timonen into sole possession of first place on the franchise's all-time scoring list.

December 7, 2007: Predators Holdings LLC., completed its purchase of the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates Bridgestone Arena) for $193 million from Craig Leipold and took over the day-to-day operation of the Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

December 11, 2007: The Predators' new ownership group, led by Chairman David Freeman, introduced Ed Lang as the organization's President of Business Operations and David Poile as President of Hockey Operations/General Manager.

January 27, 2008: Captain Jason Arnott represented Nashville in the 56th NHL All-Star Game in Atlanta, becoming the fourth Predator to represent the club in the game.

January 25, 2009: Defenseman Shea Weber became the first Predators draft pick to represent the club in an All-Star Game.

June 18, 2009: Steve Sullivan becomes Nashville's first NHL award recipient, winning the Bill Masterton Trophy, given to the player who "best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." Sullivan returned on Jan. 10, 2009 from a 23-month absence due to injury.

February 23, 2010: The Predators and Bridgestone Americas, Inc. announced a multi-year naming rights and marketing partnership for team's venue, naming it Bridgestone Arena.

February 28, 2010: Nashville defensemen Shea Weber (Canada) and Ryan Suter (United States) clash in the Gold Medal Game of the 2010 Vancouver Olympics. Weber's Canadian squad claims gold with a 3-2 overtime victory, with Suter earning silver while logging a game-high 31:31 of ice time. Weber is named to the Olympic All-Tournament Team.

March 1, 2010: The Predators ownership group announced a change in the leadership of its board of directors, as Tom Cigarran became the club's new chairman, replacing David Freeman who stepped down as chairman after serving three years in this role.

April 16, 2010: Led by two tallies from J-P Dumont, the Predators scored four straight third-period goals to claim a 4-1 victory over Chicago in Game One of the teams' Western Conference Quarterfinal Series. It is the first road playoff win in franchise history.

FRANCHISE TIMELINE

April 28, 2010: Predators Head Coach Barry Trotz is named a finalist for the Jack Adams Award, given annually to the NHL's top coach. It is the second time in franchise history someone from the organization is nominated for an NHL Award. One week later, General Manager David Poile is revealed as one of three finalists for the inaugural GM of the Year Award.

July 8, 2010: Shea Weber is named the fifth captain in franchise history.

August 10, 2010: Predators appoint senior management team with addition of Jeff Cogen as CEO and Sean Henry as President and COO.

January 30, 2011: Captain Shea Weber participates in his second straight All-Star Game, forming a pairing with future Hall-of-Famer Nicklas Lidstrom to post a +6 rating while racking up four assists, becoming just the second defenseman in All-Star Game history to amass four helpers.

February 10, 2011: The Predators acquire center Mike Fisher from the Ottawa Senators for two draft picks. He would post eight points in the club's final seven regular-season contests to secure a playoff berth, then lead the team with six points in six games during their first playoff series victory in franchise history.

February 26, 2011: Brentwood, Tenn., native and Predators 2006 second-round pick Blake Geoffrion makes his NHL debut, becoming the first Tennessee native, and first fourth-generation NHLer to appear in the League. He scored his first goal two games later at Edmonton, and became youngest player in franchise history to notch a hat trick in his 11th career game on March 20 at Buffalo.

April 20, 2011: General Manager David Poile is the first of four in the organization to earn a nomination for the 2011 NHL Awards, becoming the finalist for the GM of the Year Award in each of its first two years of existence. Two days later, Pekka Rinne is nominated for the Vezina Trophy, followed by Shea Weber being named a finalist for the Norris Trophy three days later. Head Coach Barry Trotz caps the parade to Las Vegas with his second straight Jack Adams nomination four days later, giving Nashville the second-most nominees at the Awards show.

April 22, 2011: Nashville's spring of "firsts" begins as Jerred Smithson scores at 1:57 of extra time to lift the Predators to a 4-3 victory at the Honda Center in Anaheim. It was the Predators' first playoff overtime victory, first Game Five victory and first time winning three games in a playoff year. Two nights later in Game Six, the Predators would top the Ducks 4-2 at Bridgestone Arena to win their first playoff series in franchise history.

April 30, 2011: Predators rookie forward Matt Halischuk ends the longest game in franchise history at 14:51 of double overtime, putting a shot over Vancouver goaltender Roberto Luongo's glove for a 2-1 win at Rogers Arena. The win tied the series at one game apiece.

May 3, 2011: The Nashville Predators play their first game in the month of May before a sellout crowd of 17,113 at Bridgestone Arena.

November 3, 2011: On his 29th birthday, goaltender Pekka Rinne signs a seven-year, $49 million contract, then proceeded to shut out the Phoenix Coyotes that night, stopping 35 shots in a 3-0 victory.

November 12, 2011: The franchise plays its 1,000th regular season game against the Montreal Canadiens. David Poile became the first general manager in NHL history to record 1,000 games with two separate franchises (Washington from 1982-97) while Barry Trotz became just the fourth coach to spend 1,000 games behind the bench of a single franchise.

December 15, 2011: The Nashville Predators/Bridgestone Arena and Bridgestone Americas, Inc. announced a five-year extension on the naming rights for Bridgestone Arena, keeping the Bridgestone brand name on Nashville's downtown arena through 2019.

January 29, 2012: The defensive duo of Shea Weber and Ryan Suter represent the Predators at the 2012 All-Star Game, marking the second time in franchise history that two players have been named to the game. It is Weber's third consecutive All-Star Weekend appearance.

March 22, 2012: The Nashville Predators announced the results of a study that found the team and Bridgestone Arena generate an annual economic impact of approximately $410 million and support more than 2,350 jobs annually.

March 30, 2012: Nashville recorded the 500th regular season victory in club history with a 4-1 victory over the Detroit Red Wings at Joe Louis Arena. The Predators hit the milestone in 1,062 games, the fewest in the post-1990 expansion era. David Poile became the first GM to guide two separate clubs to 500 wins, and Barry Trotz became just the fifth bench boss to post 500 wins with a single team.

April 5, 2012: The Predators round out the home portion of their 2011-12 schedule with their 25th sellout of the season, setting a franchise record for sellouts in a single campaign. The team filled Bridgestone Arena to 97.5 percent capacity (16,691 per game), also a franchise best.

April 20, 2012: With a 2-1 victory at Bridgestone Arena, the Predators eliminate the Detroit Red Wings in five games of their Western Conference Quarterfinal Series. Not only is it the shortest series victory in franchise record, but marks the first postseason win over the team long looked to as toast of the Central Division. It also made the Predators the only team in the Western Conference to advance to the second round in both 2011 and 2012.

FRANCHISE TIMELINE

June 20, 2012: For the second consecutive season, four members of the organization are finalists at the NHL Awards in Las Vegas. Mike Fisher became the second award winner in franchise history, earning the NHL Foundation Award which recognizes an NHL player who applies the core values of hockey – commitment, perseverance and teamwork – to enrich the lives of people in his community. Both Pekka Rinne (Vezina) and Shea Weber (Norris) are finalist for awards given to the top players at their respective positions for the second straight year, while David Poile is nominated for the GM of the Year Award for the third straight campaign.

July 24, 2012: The Predators matched the 14-year, $110 million offer sheet to captain Shea Weber, in a decision described as most important hockey transaction in franchise history. It was the second largest contract in NHL history.

March 28, 2013: The Predators sell out Bridgestone Arena for the 29th consecutive time, establishing a franchise record for consecutive sellouts. The Preds finished the 2012-13 season by filling Bridgestone Arena to capacity 20 times in 24 home games, with an average attendance of 16,974 (99.2 percent), highest in franchise history.

April 23, 2013: The Nashville Predators announce the formation of the Nashville Predators Alumni Association.

May 21, 2013: Phil Housley the all time leading scorer among U.S.-born NHL defensemen is named an assistant coach.

January 9, 2014: Bridgestone Arena officially opened the SoBro entrance at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Demonbreun, one of several stages of renovations done to continually improve patrons' experiences in the building. The SoBro entrance is home to Tavern '96, Bridgestone Arena's first outside accessible restaurant featuring indoor and outdoor seating, food and more than 60 beer options.

March 1, 2014: Spearheaded by the generosity of Predators Captain Shea Weber and goaltender Pekka Rinne, the Predators Foundation announced the rebranding of the Nashville Predators Pediatric Cancer Fund at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt to the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund. As part of the 365 Fund, Weber and Rinne purchased two suites at Bridgestone Arena and will host patients and families from the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital.

April 10, 2014: The Nashville Predators and Scott Hamilton announce the formation of the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy at the Ford Ice Center. Hamilton will serve as active principal in the Academy, helping develop the curriculum for learn-to-skate and figure skating programs.

May 6, 2014: Peter Laviolette, a Stanley Cup winner with the Carolina Hurricanes in 2006, is named the franchise's second head coach. Kevin McCarthy also joins the organization as an assistant coach.

May 7, 2014: The Nashville Predators Foundation's philanthropic pursuits reached new heights with the largest grant allocation in the organization's history, with the largest grant allocation in the organization's history with 114 grants totaling $410,652 distributed to area charities. The Predators Foundation has awarded more than $4 million since its 1998 inception.

September 12, 2014: Ten months after the Nashville Predators and Metro Nashville Government broke ground on the new recreation center and ice rink development at Global Mall at the Crossings in Antioch, Tennessee, Ford Ice Center celebrated its grand opening. Ford Ice Center, named in partnership with the Mid-South Ford Dealers, is a component of a public-private partnership between the Nashville Predators and Metro to help continue the growth of hockey and all forms of recreational ice skating in Middle Tennessee.

MEDIA INF

ORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION
MEDIA RELATIONS

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Gerry Helper (ghelper@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2344), Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2335) or Alexis Witman (awitman@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2347) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to Bridgestone Arena and all working areas for all 2014-15 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email on company letterhead to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com) by 1 p.m. CT on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited; for this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be issued only to representatives of legitimate news-gathering agencies and websites. They will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter through the employee entrance of Bridgestone Arena under the black awning on Sixth Avenue near the Grand Avenue Garage. Credentials are also available at this entrance on game nights, which will be open three hours prior to face-off. Practices at the arena and morning skates are accessible through the Patron Platinum Club Entrance on Fifth Avenue (facing the Hilton Suites hotel).

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may receive location assignments from team photographer John Russell (johnrussell@earthlink.net) on game nights or in advance via email. In accordance to NHL Images policies and procedures, freelance photographers and roving passes are not permitted.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The Bridgestone Arena press box is located in sections 310 (television and radio broadcasts), 311 (home and visiting beat writers) and 312 (local TV crews, scouts, other media), and can be reached from the event level by taking the elevators/freight elevator near the Zamboni entrance to Level 4. Proceed to your left out of the elevators, and the press box is three sections down.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet is available to media throughout Bridgestone Arena. The password can be attained through the Predators communications staff. For technical assistance, please contact Casey Millar (cmillar@nashvillepredators.com; 615-238-7143).

2014-15 NASHVILLE PREDATORS MEDIA GUIDE
The Nashville Predators 2014-15 media guide is available for download on the Predators Pressbox page, or at nashvillepredators.com/mediaguide.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS PRESSBOX PAGE
NashvillePredators.com/Pressbox is a media resource page which contains team publications; in-game and postgame notes, quotes and audio files; online news links; daily stats reports and game notes; and other valuable information. Access to the site is available through the Predators communications department.

PRE-GAME INTERVIEWS
Media interviews are available outside the Predators' dressing room up to 90 minutes before each game by special request. Writers, television and radio stations seeking live or taped pregame interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to Predators communications representative AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POSTGAME
Head Coach Peter Laviolette will be available in the event-level media lounge for his postgame press conference following each home game. The Predators' dressing room will open no later than 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting. Transcriptions of both head coaches' postgame availabilities, as well as various Predators and visitors player quotes from the locker room will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game. The freight elevator outside sections 312 & 313 will make two express trips to the event level immediately following the game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Work space and media dining are available in the media lounge/workroom on the event level's south side between the Zamboni tunnel and visitor's dressing room. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to sections 310 and 311. Statistics, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open no later than 10 minutes after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A communications representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

OFF-LIMITS
The medical room, players' lounge and shower/lavatory areas are closed to all media. The main locker room will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS
Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Peter Laviolette and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

Ford Ice Center, which opened for public use in August 2014, was built as a provision of the June 2012 lease agreement between the city of Nashville and Bridgestone Arena. A component of the public-private partnership between Metro and the Nashville Predators, Ford Ice Center will help continue growth of hockey in Middle Tennessee.

Located in Antioch at the Global Mall at the Crossings, Ford Ice Center houses two sheets of ice, eight locker rooms, four party rooms and more. With the addition of Ford Ice Center's two sheets of ice, Middle Tennessee now boasts six community sheets of ice, providing an opportunity for players of all levels and ages more opportunities to participate in hockey and ice skating.

In addition to housing the Predators Youth Hockey initiatives like Get Out and Learn! (G.O.A.L!), Ford Ice Center is home to the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy. Hamilton, a longtime Franklin, Tennessee, resident and Olympic Gold Medalist, serves as the active principal at the Academy, helping with curriculum development, staffing and more.

The Nashville Predators hosted their first rookie tournament at Ford Ice Center in September 2014, with the Florida Panthers, Tampa Bay Lightning and Boston Bruins all bringing their rookies to compete in a two-day event. One of the first of many tournaments and special events to be hosted at Ford Ice Center, the centrally-located facility will generate area economic development with increases in demand for local lodging, dining, shopping and entertainment.

This new, state-of-the-art facility will also provide tremendous opportunity and benefits for residents throughout Middle Tennessee and the southeast for many years to come.

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex.

The $20 million, 145,000 square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous U.S. Senior and Junior National Swim Meets, the YMCA National Swim Meet and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

During the summer of 2014, the ice arena at Centennial Sportsplex underwent major renovations, including replacing the ice coolant systems and installing new dasher boards and glass at Rink B.

The ice arena is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility which opened on February 1, 1999. The building holds offices for Predators coaching staff and hockey operations department, a full dressing room, weight room and athletic training wing.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offers special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at (615) 862-8480 or visit nashville.gov/sportsplex.

A-Game Sportsplex is a privately owned facility that has become one of the premiere sports destinations in the south. Located in Cool Springs, A-Game (formerly known as Southern Ice) is a 175,000-square-foot multi-sport training facility with five acres of outdoor space. The facility features two ice rinks, six hardwood courts for basketball and volleyball, multiple outdoor fields for football and lacrosse, a fitness center, laser chase and other sports and activities.

A-Game Sportsplex operates and administrates youth and adult hockey programs via the A-Game Hockey Association for all ages and skill levels. Youth hockey programs consist of introductory classes for new players, training clinics geared towards skill development for all levels, recreational house leagues and competitive travel teams. Adult hockey programs feature in-house recreational leagues by skill level along with training clinics focused on skill development and team tactics.

The Nashville Jr. Predators, who are making their North American 3 Hockey League (NA3HL) debut in 2014-15, are based at A-Game. The Jr. Predators will play in the NA3HL's South Division with five other teams from Texas (3), Kansas and Alabama.

The venue is also home to the Nashville Jr. Predators youth "A-AAA" travel program that houses Minor and Major teams at the Mite, Squirt, Bantam, Pee-Wee and Midget classifications and to several of the Predators Youth & Amateur Hockey initiatives. Initiatives hosted at A-Game include the Summer Hockey School and Get Out And Learn! (G.O.A.L!) program, a free introductory program is designed for kids 9-and-under with no prior playing experience.

The Nashville Predators partner with A-Game to bolster grassroots development of the game. A-Game serves as a springboard for developing fans in the Middle Tennessee area. Thanks to the partnership, the Predators also host other events at A-Game such as hockey clinics, dry-land training and open practices.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-winning goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-against average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-killing pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-play goal: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-play percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded goal: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthanded as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

Tenths of a second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches' record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

MEDIA INFORMATION

NAME, LOGO & SWEATERS

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on Sept. 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address. In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years. Radiocarbon tests revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marked only the fifth of its kind in North America.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.

The naming of the Predators was a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

During the public events and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by a two-to-one margin over the second choice. On Nov. 13, 1997, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it. On Feb. 12, 1998, Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys at Cool Springs Galleria.

On Nov. 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at Bridgestone Arena. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player.

The Predators would debut a new third jersey on Nov. 27, 2009 against the St. Louis Blues. The sweaters, which features a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey, and a bolder and more simplified color scheme, were worn for two seasons, but were set aside for the forseeable future, making way for the first logo and color scheme redesign in franchise history.

The logo and uniforms which debuted during the 2011-12 season were designed to develop a powerful, long-term brand message and help infuse new life into the Nashville Predators imagery and brand with a more contemporary, aggressive, streamlined logo that still maintains the basic Pred Head concept. A new secondary logo was also designed to represent the state flag of Tennessee and Nashville's Music City heritage simultaneously, with a guitar pick shape incorporating the three stars of the state's three grand divisions – West, Middle and East. The "Predators Gold" sweaters create a distinctive, dominant, bold look that balances traditional elements of classic uniforms, with those unique to Nashville – guitar strings in the numbering and lettering, fangs in the neck area and piano keys on the inside of the collars.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, former Predators associate coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semifinals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers. "The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success – all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.
